ATTACKERS GAIN FOOTHOLD IN MADRID

Germany Scores Soviet Arrests In Alleged Plot

Sharp Protest Received at Moscow After Twenty-three Reich Citizens Seized, Fourteen on Charges of Espionage

Scores of Russian Citizens Also Held

Associated Press
Moscow, Nov. 16.—The German government protested sharply to Soviet Russia today against the arrest of twenty-three German citizens.

The protest followed Soviet announcement to the German government that charges of espionage and conspiracy had been lodged against fourteen of those arrested.

Accusations against the other nine Germans had not been reported. Previously they were reported detained with a number of persons of other nationalities in connection with an alleged Fascist plot against the Soviet government.

RUSSIANS HELD

It also was learned scores of Russians, one of them prominent, had been detained in connection with the alleged plot. Among the best known was Professor Worms, leading international lawyer in Moscow. He is a Soviet citizen and an attorney for various embassies.

William Breck Dies in New York

New York, Nov. 16.—Bill Breck, fifty-three, artist who illustrated William Street's humorous book "Dere Mable," died yesterday at his hotel residence here. Breck illustrated many novels and magazine stories.

Stork Derby Will Attacked In Court

Counsel of Relatives of Late C. V. Millar Voice View to Toronto Judge. Marathon Is Against Public Good

Canadian Press
Toronto, Nov. 16.—Attacking the baby marathon clause of the will of the late Charles Vance Millar, as against the public good, counsel for relatives of the eccentric Toronto lawyer were heard today by Mr. Justice W. E. Middleton.

I. F. Hollnuth, K.C.; Gordon Law, K.C.; and Peter White, K.C., representing different groups of Millar relatives who seek to upset the will, said there could be no doubt Millar deliberately worded the will so the mothers of illegitimate children would be eligible.

MOTHERS ATTEND

Half a dozen stork derby mothers stared fixedly at the three lawyers as they called the contest vicious, degrading and revolting. One claimant of the $500,000 estate has admitted five of her children were born after she separated from her husband.

The hearing was a continuation of that begun ten days ago when the executors of the will which left the bulk of the estate to the Toronto mother having the most babies in ten years, asked the court for direction whether the will was valid. If so the executors wished to know to whom the money should be paid.

NOT CALLING EXPERTS

Mr. Justice Middleton indicated today he would not throw the hearing wide open to the testimony of experts who might give evidence on the question of whether the clause was in the public good.

AFFIDAVITS READ

W. E. N. Tilley, K.C., counsel for the executors, read two affidavits which had been placed before the court by counsel for Millar relatives. Made by Rev. Charles Silcox, secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada, and Dr. W. B. Hendry, Toronto obstetrician, the affidavits

REICH-JAPAN PACT IS SEEN

Anti-Soviet Treaty Soon, Says P. Patterson, Newspaper Executive

Associated Press
Shanghai, Nov. 16.—Germany and Japan are rapidly reaching an agreement on an anti-Soviet treaty designed to combat the growth and spread of Communism, Paul Patterson, president of The Baltimore Sun, said here today.

Mr. Patterson arrived in Shanghai after spending several weeks in Japan. He declared that although negotiations on the agreement were secret, the terms of the proposed treaty were expected to be disclosed before the Japanese parliament convenes December 24.

The United States newspaper executive declared he had learned Prince Chichibu, brother of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, will pay a courtesy call on Chancellor Hitler while in Europe to attend King Edward's coronation next May.

Mr. Patterson believed the pact would "be left open" to allow other nations an opportunity to join the agreement.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

He said the Japanese foreign office had launched a campaign to prepare the nation for announcement of the new undertaking, leading off with a brief communique last week that "matters of great diplomatic importance will soon be submitted to the Privy Council."

This announcement came simultaneously with the return to Tokyo from Berlin of German ambassador Herbert von Dirksen.

Mr. Patterson said speculation broke out immediately in Japanese newspapers, The Asahi declaring "the returning German ambassador paid a courtesy call at the Foreign Office."

SCOW LOST AND CREW MISSING

Not Known How Many Were With Capt. J. Battram on Lake Erie Craft

Canadian Press
Kingsville, Ont., Nov. 16.—A mysterious fire that sent the gasoline-powered scow Don Juan to the bottom of Lake Erie and left no trace of the crew had this community southeast of Windsor puzzled today.

Nearly ten miles out in the windswept lake last night witnesses saw a riding light blink, west appeared to be a torch, and then a sheet of flame. They thought a freighter was afire.

Tugs put out to the rescue in the face of a bitter wind that froze spray to the decks as heavy waves battered the little craft. They arrived to see a charred hulk slip to the bottom.

Capt. Jack Battram was missing, but investigations failed to determine what crew had accompanied him.

Mary Pickford To Be Married

Announcement of Engagement to Charles "Buddy" Rogers to Be Made Friday

Associated Press
Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 16.—Mary Pickford confirmed today her oft-rumored engagement to Charles "Buddy" Rogers, band leader and actor.

Miss Pickford said that Mrs. Bert Rogers, mother of Buddy, would fly to Hollywood tomorrow from Olathe, Kan., to make the official announcement next Friday or Saturday.

"The announcement will be made at a small reception to be held at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel," said Miss Pickford.

"The reception will be planned on the arrival of Mrs. Rogers. No date for the wedding has been set, except that it will be in the spring."

Hitherto rumors that the two would wed had been met by silence or direct denial.

TWO DIVORCES
Miss Pickford's divorce from her first husband, Owen Moore, was granted in March, 1920. Her second marriage, with Douglas Fairbanks Jr., terminated in January, 1935.

For thirty-eight of Mary Pickford's forty-three years she has been identified with the stage and screen.

She had a speaking part in a stock company in Toronto, her birthplace, when she was only five, and at thirteen she made her first appearance on Broadway, playing with Chauncey Olcott in "Edmund Burke."

Buddy Rogers is thirty-two years of age.

STATEMENT BY FATHER

INQUIRY OPENS ON POTATOES

Growers Testify on Operations of Marketing Board

In a room crowded with witnesses the agricultural committee of the B.C. Legislature this morning opened an investigation into the operations of the B.C. Coast Vegetable Marketing Board, with E. D. Barrow, chairman, presiding.

Up to noon when the committee adjourned until tomorrow four witnesses had been heard.

Basil Gardom, Fraser Valley independent, and Howard Mitchell, editor of The Financial News, were the first called, but declined to give their testimony until their counsel, Frank Higgins, K.C., could be present tomorrow.

W. T. Straith appeared on behalf of the Marketing Board, J. D. McPhee for the Snow agency which handled the products, and G. P. Hogg on behalf of the Chinese growers.

Three growers testified against marketing control saying they could get better returns for potatoes without it. One witness, testifying for the Columbia Potato Growers' Association, expressed satisfaction with the scheme.

AUDIT DEMANDED

Demand for an independent audit of the board's books was made by Mr. Hogg who said his clients had offered to post up to $1,500 to pay for such an audit which had been refused.

Mr. Straith said the board would agree to an audit if the inquiry desired it, but was naturally not going to allow special audits for every one of the 2,500 growers or would never get any business done.

Col. A. W. McLean, of the marketing board, declared Mr. Hogg had (Turn to Page 2, Col. 7)

Progress Made In Employment Policy Says Labor Chief

Housing Proposals, Mining Road Construction, Forestry and Farm Plans Employment and Development of Country's External Trade to Aid Unemployment Problem, Says Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of Labor

Low cost housing, including home rehabilitation, construction of tourist highways and mining roads, encouragement of forestry and farm employment and development of the country's external trade, are policies framed by the Dominion Government to take up the unemployment slack in Canada, said Hon. Norman McLeod Rogers, federal Minister of Labor, in an interview given at the Empress Hotel today.

"We are confident that as a result of the policies formulated and being put into effect by the government that substantial progress will be made in the relief of unemployment," he said.

"We have built up an organization which can meet the problem successfully," said the minister. "We fully realize, however, the magnitude of the problem, but we have made considerable progress already and intend to follow through."

Mr. Rogers is making his first trip to the Pacific Coast since he took over the portfolio of labor.

He is making a survey of the unemployment situation and personally acquainting himself with the problems peculiar to every section of the country.

Tribute was paid by Mr. Rogers to the work of Arthur B. Purvis, chairman of the National Employment Commission, and to Alan Chambers, chairman of the youth employment committee.

Recommendations of the National Employment Commission designed to provide more employment in Canada will come before the next session of Parliament, the minister stated.

Mr. Rogers stressed the point that in considering public works programmes it was first of all necessary to seek the type of project which could be economically justified, apart from its immediate utility as a relief project. They must be works of value, he said.

Majorca is held by the Spanish insurgents.

Mussolini, according to reports, has an eye on Majorca for an Italian naval base. And reports go to show that Majorca is rapidly passing under Italian influence.

Three Flee From Scene of Slaying at Tieland, Alberta

Canadian Press
Tieland, Alta., Nov. 16.—Six persons, virtually the entire population of this tiny settlement on the Northern Alberta Railway, 100 miles north of Edmonton, lay dead today, five of them shot or clubbed to death and the other allegedly a suicide.

Police, investigating reports of three other persons who said they had fled on a railway speeder before rifle fire after coming unwittingly to the slaying scene, found five persons dead in buildings of the settlement. On nearby railway tracks they found the body of the alleged slayer, Carl Sheits.

Carp Nelson, who succeeded Sheits as section foreman here, was found dead in his speeder house, shot through the head. His wife and three-year-old son, Edward, were found clubbed to death in their home. Bodies of two section hands, John Marcinuk and George Reul, were found in their respective shacks. Both had been shot.

FOUND BUILDINGS LOCKED

Authorities believed the slaying were done early Saturday. An unidentified girl arrived that afternoon by train to become a domestic for Mrs. Nelson. She found all buildings locked and no sign of life, so broke into a shack, where she spent the night.

Police said Sheits went to the shack Sunday and the two break-fasted together. After Sheits had left, Joe Garry and Mrs. Erna Ristock, (Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

Vancouver, Nov. 16.—The Vancouver City Council will meet today to consider appointment of a commissioner to investigate findings contained in the report of W. A. Tucker, police auditor. Meanwhile, Mr. Tucker, dismissed after he had handed in his ninety-page report of police department conditions, made a statement to the press defending his position. The Tucker report has not yet been made public officially.

"Some have asked me why I was so outspoken and even violent in the report I drew up," Tucker's statement said. ## HOUSES WRECKED

All along the riverbank the devastating effects of Fascist bombardment could be seen. Houses were wrecked, trolley wires down, trees torn up, homes abandoned.

The Cuatro Caminos section, thrived with activity as workers threw up parapets and refugees streamed in.

PLANES KILL MANY

Fighting became more intense around the capital's edges after week-end raids by Fascist planes in which more than 100 Madrilenos were reported killed and 300 others injured.

The Fascist troops drove across the Casa del Campo Park, heavily wooded former royal estate directly across the Manzanares River from the national palace.

The force of the attack was not retarded, observers noted, by the government's destruction of the Los Franceses railroad bridge closing the invaders' easiest route of possible entry.

Socialist and Fascist gunners kept up a constant shelling of opposing positions, with insurgent shells falling into Madrid's Gran Via, main business thoroughfare.

Paving blocks were ripped up by the bombardment, which combined with two aerial attacks to add new victims to the civil war's death list.

SUNDAY RAIDS

Fascist bombers first appeared over the city Sunday morning, showering the entire northwestern section with explosive missiles.

A second sky attack during the afternoon was centred in the Cuatro Caminos suburb, where bombs were reported to have fallen near the abandoned British-American nursing home.

Government air squadrons took off hastily to drive the insurgent planes away, but the Fascist pilots disappeared quickly after dropping their death-dealing cargoes.

trans-Atlantic liner Washington at New York.

Rank and file seamen leaders, who picked the liner by airplane and motor launch when it docked Saturday, claimed the deck and engine-room crews would refuse to sign on for the scheduled sailing Wednesday.

The claim was disputed by Capt. Schuyler M. Cummings, marine superintendent of the International Mercantile Marine, who said 380 of the 500 crew members had pledged themselves to stand by the ship for the sailing.

FROM HONOLULU

Seventy of 700 ship passengers, stranded in Honolulu when the strike was called October 29, escaped the blockade by obtaining passage on a Japanese liner.

Observers here said they believed the demand of the unions, particularly the sailors, for control of the hiring halls continued the chief obstacle.

Harry Bridges, whose longshoremen are backing the sailors and demanding continued control of their own hiring halls, told a western writers' congress here:

"We're on strike and we're going to win."

He said unless a settlement is reached soon the walkout "may spread to another 150,000 or 200,000 workers."

ALASKA FOOD PROBLEM

Seattle, Nov. 16.—N. C. Hatfield, president of the Juneau Chamber of Commerce, telegraphed here today that the Alaska capital's perishable vegetable supplies were exhausted.

The extent of the insurgent penetration, however, was obscured by conflicting advice. An official statement said the Moors and foreign legionnaires had occupied a building in University City, north of the Paseo de Rosales.

The Paseo de Rosales, at the western side of Madrid proper, runs directly north and west of the Montana barracks, damaged by recent insurgent shell and aerial fire. The barracks lie between the Paseo and the north station.

Today's bombardment was tremendous. The Fascist guns could be heard from twenty-five miles.

MACHINE GUNS BUSY

Fascist machine gunners holding tenaciously to newly won positions inside Madrid proper, flailed Socialist defenders.

Advance guards of Gen. Francisco Franco's Fascist besiegers fought their way into the northwestern University City district late yesterday, the high command announced.

Under cover of a terrific air and land bombardment, they occupied one of the first buildings in University City and gained an actual foothold in the Spanish capital, the official announcement asserted.

FIRST CROSSING OF RIVER

The troops, preceded by tanks, forded the Manzanares River and gained their objective after heavy fighting.

This was stated to be the first successful crossing of the river in the ten days of fighting on the city's outskirts.

Five Fascist tri-motored bombers dumped six bombs into the district to clear the way for the infantry charge which followed behind a shield of machine-gun and rifle fire.

The bombing planes were escorted by fifteen fighting ships.

A squadron of government planes half an hour earlier had flown low over the insurgent lines in an attempt to halt the advance of Gen. Franco's vanguard.

Reinforcements of legionnaires and Moors were rushed up to follow the shock troops into the capital where violent street fighting was expected.

A fleet of whippet tanks was lined up Saturday to aid the invasion.

London, Nov. 16 (Canadian Press).—Insurgent headquarters in Burgos have assured the British government they will not bomb the British-American hospital in Madrid. But appeals to both sides to spare prisoners have fallen on deaf ears.

An ambassadors' committee at Hendaye, France, worked out a scheme for dividing Madrid into zones with the idea that an agreement would be reached not to bomb certain defined areas, but the scheme so far has not been accepted.

A few moments later, rifle shots whistled about their heads and they and the domestic fled on the speeder.

Police were notified at the next town and, on rushing to the scene, found Shields dead on the tracks, a rifle clutched in one hand and another nearby. Police said condition of the rifles indicated they had been used as clubs on the woman and child.

The body bore a pack sack. Police did not reveal how Shields had died pending arrival of Coroner L. A. Kieck of Westlock, Alta.

It was planned to open an inquest today.

Peiping, Nov. 16.—Eight Japanese fighting planes bombed provincial fortifications in eastern Suifu province in an attack near Taolin, Chinese sources reported today.

Three thousand infantry troops, composed of Manchukuan and Mongol irregulars, assisted in the assault against Suifu province defenders, the reports declared.

The attack was reported to have been made yesterday at the Suifu city 125 miles northwest of Kalgan.

Meagre accounts which reached Kwaipei said the attackers launched six separate drives, combining infantry, planes, heavy artillery and tanks.

Suifu provincial troops repulsed the offensive, the reports added, inflicting "heavy losses" on the invaders. Suifu commanders acknowledged "slight losses."

Recurrent fighting has been reported by Chinese sources in the northern province where, it is asserted, Japanese are attempting to extend their influence westward from Manchukuo.

Chinese sources have insisted actual fighting is in progress between the Japanese-sponsored troops and the provincial armies. "The National government recently requested evacuation of all foreigners from the territory on the ground the Chinese could not be responsible for their safety."

Yesterday, foreign quarters at Kwaipei denied accounts of the bombing of Taolin, communications centre in Suifu. Reports of large concentrations of Japanese forces near Pailingmiao were minimized.

"It is our objective to create co-laboral employment," he said in support of such projects as the construction of mining roads, which would bring about mining development, and in turn create employment.

The building and improvement of tourist highways was also favored by the government.

The importance of the tourist industry to Canada could not be questioned, he said, adding that British Columbia would be the first to appreciate this.

FORESTRY TRAINING

The forestry training plan, which is working successfully in British Columbia, is included in the federal government's proposals.

"I am very favorably impressed by the opportunities afforded in the forestry service," said Mr. Rogers. "British Columbia has already done admirable work in its forestry service."

Single men were well suited to employment in this class of work, he thought.

Next summer will see the low-cost housing and home rehabilitation scheme well advanced, he said.

With building operations of this type under way throughout the country, employment would be given to a large number of skilled and unskilled men in various branches of industry.

The farm employment plan, Mr. Rogers stated, was working out satisfactorily, over 5,000 men having been given employment in Saskatchewan alone. This would indirectly help British Columbia, he said, as it would tend to curb the movement of transient labor to this province.

Expansion of Canada's external trade would be an important factor in providing employment, Mr. Rogers pointed out. The policy of the government in this respect had Immediately after breakfast this morning, Mr. Rogers visited the Parliament Buildings to discuss with Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Mines and Labor, proposals affecting single unemployed transients.

"Between us I believe we are going to take care of the situation," he said. He also talked relief projects with Hon. F. M. Macpherson, Minister of Public Works.

During the forenoon Mr. Rogers was greeted at the hotel by Dr. W. C. Miller, former Dominion archivist for the Maritimes, and an old friend of the family in Amherst, N.S.

Traveling with the minister is Mrs. Rogers, A. G. MacLachlan, secretary, and Humphrey Mitchell, director of labor transients, Ottawa.

The ministerial party will leave here tonight for Vancouver.

davits declared their belief the contest that has been staged was not in the public good.

"I cannot permit a wide open general inquiry," Mr. Justice Middleton remarked. "It would be scandalous."

However, he did not make a decision about admission of the affidavits.

Despite this it seemed the present hearing would continue for another day. A luncheon adjournment was taken this afternoon after a three-hour session and the hearing was scheduled to go on later today.

Counsel for the mothers have yet to be heard.

Mr. Tilley contended at one point today that the clause did not admit illegitimate children. Counsel for the Millar relatives, however, contended the opposite was the case.

They admitted that usually in the interpretation of wills a gift to children is taken to mean to legitimate children. Mr. Law said Millar had realized this and deliberately sought to get around it by making the bequest to mothers, not to children.

INFLUENCE ON PUBLIC

All the arguments of Millar relatives' counsel was made in an effort to prove the baby clause of the will was not in the public good.

Mr. Hellmuth called the baby clause a "vicious contest which was obviously against the public moral standards. He asked whether it was not against the public good that the mothers should be stimulated to produce children 'like rabbits'."

Mr. Hellmuth referred to an "Edgerton decision," in which a bribe was offered for the birth of a baronet and a will upset by a decision in England.

"A baronet seems a little thing in comparison with this case," said Mr. Justice Middleton.

MRS. KENNY THERE

Mrs. Lily Kenny, who claims to have won the baby derby, was alone as she attended this forenoon's hearing. Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Gus Graziano, Mrs. Arthur Timleck, Mrs. Giovanna Amadeo and Mrs. Elvira Mastrotucci were accompanied by their husbands and friends.

The affidavit of Rev. Charles Sileux of the Social Service Council said it was common knowledge among social workers that the having of children in rapid succession was detrimental to both children and mother, and, when families were poor, the state frequently had to assume charge of them.

A new affidavit was introduced into the case when James Lawrence Huffman, London, Ont., a "cousin once removed" of Charles Vance Millar, submitted his affidavit tracing his relationship to the late Toronto lawyer.

actress, and his son would be announced Friday at Hollywood.

The elder Rogers, a county probate judge, said Buddy had divulged the news in a telephone conversation with him and Mrs. Rogers early today.

Mrs. Rogers will leave by plane for Hollywood tomorrow morning.

"We are real pleased—mighty well pleased," Judge Rogers said.

"Buddy called me this morning," the judge related. "After a short talk with me, he asked for my mother."

"He asked her if we could take the plane to Hollywood Tuesday. She wanted to know if anyone was ill. He said 'No, wait, I'll have someone else tell you.'"

"The lady came to the telephone and it developed they are going to have an engagement announcement at Hollywood Friday and wanted us to be there."

NOT SURPRISED

Rogers said the news was not particularly a surprise to him.

"I knew they were in love and I've been expecting something like this."

He said that as far as he knew no wedding date had been set.

Judge Rogers previously had said Buddy had promised that he could perform the wedding ceremony whenever Buddy was married.

TORONTO MAYOR
FUNERAL TODAY

Toronto, Nov. 16.—Nine foreign mayors of Toronto were honorary pallbearers today at the civic funeral of the late Sam McBride, first chief magistrate of this city ever to die while in office.

The body lay in state at city hall for several hours prior to the funeral service in the main corridor.

Falls Fourteen
Floors to DeathDavid Brooks, New York
Broker and Nephew of Lady Astor, Killed

Associated Press

New York, Nov. 16.—David Brooks, nephew of Lady Astor and son-in-law of James A. Moffett, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, plunged to his death early yesterday from a fourteenth floor Park Avenue apartment.

Brooks lost his balance, police said, while opening a window in his bedroom. His bride of only four months, the former Adelaide Moffett, heard her husband scream while she was in their living-room.

After telling an incoherent story to Detective Charles Watkins, who called the death an accident, Mrs. Brooks was put under the care of a physician. The twenty-six-year-old broker and his wife had just returned home from visiting friends.

Unemployed In

Demonstration Follows
Counterfeit Coin Charges,
Later Proved False

Canadian Press

Calgary, Nov. 16.—Two hundred single jobless men, shouting and singing, held demonstrations in front of the police station and the Dominion Bank branch, in downtown Calgary, today.

In the police station, four of their leaders were held, charged with being in possession of counterfeit coins. An hour after a court hearing the charges were withdrawn and the men freed.

The police had charged counterfeit coins were found in a $1,200 bank deposit made by the Single Men's Unemployed Association following a tag day here October 31. Test of the coins, by bank experts, proved the coins genuine. It was announced.

The men arraigned in court today were George Oakes, twenty-two; Sidney Thompson, twenty-one; Robert Cameron, forty-five. The men were remanded for eight days, but when the bank report on the coins was obtained the charges were immediately withdrawn.

The demonstrators outside the police station marched round and round, chanting: "Hold the fort for us coming," and "we're not criminals because we want to eat."

Later, at the bank, a few blocks away, the men lined the streets blocking traffic, singing and booing.

NEW ECONOMIC POLICY URGED

Canadian Press

Toronto, Nov. 16.—A new national policy, based on the new economic policy, was outlined today by Hon. W. D. Herridge of Ottawa as Canada's alternative to "frenzied radical or ruthless reactionary."

In Europe the people had accepted a new relationship between themselves and government. They fled from distress, the old side having been removed," of Charles Vance Millar, submitted his affidavit tracing his relationship to the late Toronto lawyer.

Japanese Police Torture Reported

Canadian Press from Havas
Tokyo, Nov. 16.—Alleged police torture of election workers for the Seiyukai (opposition) party last February was reported yesterday for the first time in the Japanese press. Several newspapers attacked the "medieval methods" of Japanese police, who still use ancient torture chambers to wring confessions from suspects, it was charged. Britons and other foreigners showed interest in this accusation, recalling authorities here recently denied allegations British sailors had been tortured by police at Keelung, Formosa. Tokyo newspapers said twenty Seiyukai agents had undergone atrocious police punishment last February. Four policemen held responsible were later imprisoned, it was stated. "The police are threatening civil liberties," the influential newspaper Asahi said. It charged many victims had died from the treatment inflicted on them or had committed suicide. Torture was officially abolished in Japan in 1868.

Social Credit Advice Refused

Alberta Government Declines
Offer of H. Thompson,
British Spokesman

Canadian Press
Edmonton, Nov. 16.—The Alberta government has declined the offer of H. Thompson, an official of the Social Credit party of the United Kingdom, to be a technical adviser in the formative stages of the new financial order. Mr. Thompson said yesterday his services had been declined by the government and, after spending a month here, he was leaving for eastern Canada. The following statement was issued by Mr. Thompson: "As representative of the Social Credit party of Great Britain, I had two purposes in coming to Alberta: first, to study the situation, political and economic, of the province under Premier Abernethy's government and, second, to offer my services to the Alberta government. "The conditions of my offer were that any services I might render would be absolutely without charge for two months, but that after that period had elapsed, and supposing it were thought reasonable, I suggested that my expenses only should be paid from that time on until there was no further use for me in that connection. "As to the first purpose, I have completed my survey which I am communicating to the headquarters of the Social Credit party of Great Britain. As to the second purpose, the Alberta government has not found any place where they are willing to make use of my services."

Chicago Clock Change Ended

Associated Press
Chicago, Nov. 16.—Approximately 4,000,000 Chicagoans each got a refund of an hour from the City Council Saturday night as an eight months' experiment in "permanent" daylight saving time came to an end. The return to Central Standard Time—officially effective at 2 a.m. yesterday—is expected to have little effect beyond financial and railroad circles.

PLAN UTOPIA IN BAHAMAS

U.S. Citizen and Londoners
Want to Buy Island to Rule Themselves

Associated Press
New York, Nov. 16.—Tired of civilization, Austin Beck, thirty-seven-year-old Swampscott, Mass., insurance broker, said Saturday for the Bahamas Islands to establish a rustic utopia for similarly afflicted souls. "Things are not sufficient to enjoy life in the United States," he remarked. Partners in the utopian project, the policy writer explained, would be Sir Edwin and Lady Tyrrell Beck of London, distant relatives, who Beck said, are getting tired of being kept on edge by the possibility of war in Europe. "I don't think we shall have any trouble buying an island and setting up a local government. We will remain under the British flag because my companions don't want to leave the Crown," he added. Beck indicated other disgruntled Americans might be admitted to the colony, but preference would be given to Londoners.

Spain's New Capital

Defence Budget Being Drafted

No Official Announcement of Details of Canadian Scheme Until Parliament
Meets in January

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—Rumors of an elaborate new Canadian defence programme, and of heavy orders for munitions and war materials to be placed in Canada, have been met with assurances from Prime Minister King that Canada's defence department will lay its plans before Parliament this winter to replace the existing department of government. Proposed expenditures will appear in the estimates in the ordinary way. "Highlight of last week was the Prime Minister's announcement two British destroyers completed in 1931 would be brought over to Canada by the Vancouver and Champlain. They are similar to the Skeena and Saguenay, which, with the Vancouver and Champlain have made up Canada's naval complement of four destroyers. But the Prime Minister indicated clearly purchase of these two vessels and the proposed scrapping of the two older destroyers was not a recent decision but was the outcome of negotiations opened nearly a year ago."

CABINET MEETINGS
The cabinet will meet tomorrow, Wednesday and Friday of this week and three weekly sessions will be held regularly between now and Christmas. January 7 is the objective for parliamentary opening, but it will depend on how speedily preparations for the session may be carried out.

Until this work is well in hand Prime Minister King has declared he will not accept any out-of-town speaking engagements. In addition to preparing for the legislative session and the regular routine of office, the Prime Minister and his associates must complete arrangements for the official Dominion delegation to the King's coronation May 12.

Opposition Leader R. B. Bennett, now on a trip around the world, is not expected to be back in Ottawa in time for the opening of Parliament if the date chosen is as early as now anticipated. Mr. Bennett, now in South Africa or en route there from Australia, will probably not reach Ottawa until the middle of January.

Postal Change For Papers Opposed

Canadian Press
Halifax, Nov. 16.—A resolution viewing with alarm a move recently begun by the Alberta Postal Association to eliminate the free zone in postal service, was passed by the Nova Scotia Weekly Newspapers Association in conversation here Saturday.

Delegates expressed the opinion if the movement spread it ultimately would cut weekly journals from free delivery within the forty-mile radius. F. J. Burns of Kentville was re-elected president of the association.

JOHN O'BRIEN DIES AT JASPER

Jasper, Alta., Nov. 16.—John O'Brien, for many years manager of Jasper Park Lodge, internationally-known mountain resort, 230 miles west of Edmonton, died suddenly early yesterday of angina pectoris. He was sixty years of age. Mr. O'Brien joined the Canadian National Railway hotel department in 1919 as chief clerk of the Port Garry Hotel in Winnipeg. He became assistant manager in 1921 and three years later was made manager of Jasper Park Lodge, a position he had held every succeeding summer. He had served several winters as assistant manager of the Chateau Laurier in Ottawa. Mr. O'Brien is survived by the widow. The remains were forwarded to Ottawa for burial.

Truck Plunges; Children Hurt

Four Sent to Hospital After Vehicle Leaves Highway
Near Fernie, B.C.

Canadian Press
Fernie, B.C., Nov. 16.—Four children were in the hospital here today with injuries suffered when a truck carrying two Saskatchewan families plunged from the highway north of here and landed on its side in three feet of water.

The accident occurred Saturday night while Mr. and Mrs. Hougou and their seven children and Mrs. L. Bolt, sister of Mrs. Hougou, and her six children, all of Fernie, Sask., were en route to visit relatives in Yakima and Seattle.

Those in hospital are: Clarence Bolt, seventeen, shock and concussion. Alva Bolt, seven, head injuries. Meda Hougou, seventeen, sprained back. Enid Hougou, fourteen, fractured collarbone.

Their condition was said to be not serious. Other members of the two families who received minor cuts and bruises were resting at a tourist camp near here.

Hougou, who was driving, apparently failed to notice a sharp turn in the highway as the truck approached the bridge.

The occupants of the truck were thrown clear as the vehicle plunged down the twenty-foot embankment. By removing the protein in rubber before processing it, chemists find that they can produce rubber that has lower water absorption and better properties than ordinary rubber.

Fatal Shooting Is Re-enacted

Los Angeles Police Investigate Death of R. Russell
at Gouverneur Morris's
Home

Associated Press
Los Angeles, Nov. 16.—A graphic tableau which authorities hope will throw light on the mysterious shooting of Reid Russell was scheduled to be enacted today at the beach home of Gouverneur Morris, the novelist. Decision to re-enact the death scene was announced by Capt. Clyde Plummer of the district attorney's office after Morris, his wife, Ruth, and Lila Lee, film actress, had appeared voluntarily Saturday to tell what they knew of the death of the young man, with whom they were friendly.

Russell, twenty-eight, and unemployed, was found dead, a bullet wound in his head, in a lawn swing at the home of Morris last September 23. On his lap lay a pistol. Investigators could not find the bullet which killed him, nor the ejected shell.

Police today prepared to shoot the death weapon into an object of the approximate solidity of the human head, then trace the bullet. If it should be easily found, said Plummer, it would indicate Russell did not die in the lawn swing—that he was killed elsewhere and his body carried there.

While at the District Attorney's office Saturday, Morris and his wife told Plummer Russell had been morose and frequently threatened suicide. His death went into police records as suicide, but the current investigation was undertaken at the instance of Russell's mother, Mrs. Victoria Russell.

FEAR TRAPPER LOST IN LAKE

Canadian Press
Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 16.—Police feared today one member of a party of three men from Big River, Sask., had been drowned in Lac La Ronge, 125 miles north of here, while it was believed the other two were stranded on a mid-lake island. Two trappers named Moore and Neilson and an unidentified fisherman set out from Big River, 100 miles southwest of the lake, in a canoe, but failed to report at their destination.

Constable Wenzel of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police flew over the lake in a plane piloted by Al Parker and sighted two men on the shore of an island. Clothes were hanging over a fire, apparently to dry, and holes had been dug in the ice fringing the island. It was surmised the two were seeking the body of their companion.

Constable Wenzel, planning to proceed to the island as soon as conditions permit, believed the stranded men were receiving shelter and food at a trappers' camp near where they were sighted.

NECK BROKEN

Edmonton, Nov. 16 (Canadian Press).—When W. B. Schack of Edmonton went to a doctor for treatment for a broken neck, the doctor told him he "ought to be dead." ## BOYSCOUTS RESCUE LAD

Canadian Press
New York, Nov. 16.—The screams of a six-year-old boy clinging to the cliff face 120 feet above ground level in the Palisades Interstate Park yesterday brought three Boy Scout leaders to the rescue as he was on the verge of toppling to almost certain death.

The child, Jackie Schwartz of Tenafly, N.Y., had worked his way down two-thirds of the cliff when he found he could go no farther. Trapped on a narrow ledge a few inches wide, he was stricken with panic and began to shout.

Talking to the boy to calm his fears, two of the scout leaders climbed towards him, Jerome Solomon to a point above him and William Bryant to a point below him. They then handed him from one to the other and proceeded down the cliff to safety. Harold K. Whitford, scoutmaster, directed the rescue.

British Premier In Auto Crash

Canadian Press
London, Nov. 16.—Prime Minister Baldwin, returning to London from his official country residence, Chequers, was involved in a minor automobile accident on Hillingdon Hill, near Uxbridge, yesterday evening.

The Prime Minister's car and another collided at a road junction. Both cars were slightly damaged, but none of the occupants was injured. The road was wet with rain at the time.

At 10 Downing Street it was announced "the whole thing was very slight."

The idea that the world was round was held by geographers of the first century B.C.

WHAT IS SCIENCE GOOD FOR IF its research cannot be applied to the ordinary problems of everyday life? Is it right for scientists to pursue abstract knowledge at the price of neglecting those pressing human needs which might be met if science would give them a little earnest attention?

These questions are almost as old as science itself, and they usually make scientists angry. To hunt truth for its own sake is a lofty calling; it is disturbing to have the multitude demanding that science be harnessed for the solution of sordid material problems.

The point has been raised effectively at the current sessions of the American Institute of Physics in New York. A young industrialist, John Ely Burchard, who has been working with the new pre-fabricated dwelling idea, bluntly told the physicists that they would do well to spend a little less time on the mysteries of interstellar space and a little more time on such an acute social issue as the housing problem.

He quoted these words by Grosvenor Artbury: "We are spending millions to build 200-inch telescopes to scan the universe and determine whether it is getting measurably smaller or incalculably greater. All of which, in the present state of the realm, seems brilliantly useless, especially when you consider the millions who cannot afford decent homes because none of our great minds has ever been focused on the basic, everyday problem of human shelter."

There is a point here which scientists as a class would do well to consider. The housing problem is one which science can solve. A distressingly large percentage of people live in dwellings that are below the minimum requirements for comfort and decency. They need new houses very badly; the country needs the industrial boom which construction of those needed houses would provide.

But the houses are not being built because no one yet has found out how to build them cheaply enough that people who need them can buy or rent them.

As Mr. Burchard points out, if a small amount of such brains are now concentrated on research into the Einstein theory were applied resolutely to the task of finding out how to build better and cheaper houses, it would not be long before millions of persons would be infinitely more comfortable and happier.

The point of it all is that we live in an age in which many of our most pressing problems need just this sort of scientific attention. The era of applied science has opened infinite possibilities. To cash in on them, we must have a body of scientists who are constantly awake to the social responsibilities of their high calling.

The Growth of Trade

LATEST EXTERNAL TRADE STATISTICS issued from Ottawa show that for the month of October this year the value of Canadian products exported amounted in value to $110,993,509 with imports during the same period reaching a value of $65,187,974. The chief significance of these statistics lies in the fact that last month's exports exceeded those of any other month since the November of 1929, and were $20,500,000 ahead of the total for October last year. At this rate of progress the country's external business should reach the two-billion-dollar mark again within the next year.

As pointed out by Mr. F. A. Carman, writing in the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Agricultural and Industrial Progress in Canada, improvement in nearly all the major economic factors has combined in contribution toward the satisfactory growth of the country's export and import trade. He reminds us also that in addition to the greater activity reflected in the physical volume of business—which is based upon forty-five factors—the general improvement is represented in six other indices. Wholesale prices, on the seven months' basis, rose 9 per cent between 1933 and 1935, and something more than 1 per cent additional in 1936. Similarly, common stock prices on the exchanges increased by 44 per cent between 1933 and 1935, with an additional rise of 28 per cent in 1936. The growth of bank deposits was 6 per cent up to 1935 and 13 per cent more in the present year. Carloadings rose 22 per cent in the first two years and 2 per cent more this year. Electric power production advanced 38 per cent up to 1935 and 9 per cent more this year. On an eight months' basis, employment increased 20 per cent between 1933 and 1935, to which a further 4 per cent has been added in the last year.

Important factors showing the trend of mineral production have recorded further advances this year over the relatively high level of 1935. Nickel exports increased, on the seven months' basis, by 72 per cent from 1933 to 1935, and by 34 per cent additional this year. Copper exports advanced 70 per cent in the two years up to 1935 and 2 per cent more this year. Zinc exports rose by 67 per cent up to 1935 and have risen 2 per cent further in 1936. Coal production increased 29 per cent from 1933 to 1935 and added 8 per cent more this year. Silver shipments declined slightly—less than 1 per cent—in the first two years under review, but advanced 43 per cent in the last year. Gold shipments rose 7 per cent from 1933 to 1935 and have increased 14 per cent more during 1936.

In the field of manufacturing and construction, Mr. Carman tells us, all industries reported show gains for the three-year period, though the advance has been checked in a few industries during the current year. Pig iron production increased, on the seven months basis, by 357 per cent from 1933 to 1935, and by 21 per cent additional in 1936; while steel ingot output rose by 164 per cent up to 1935 and by 36 per cent more during the current year. Automobile output increased by 177 per cent up to 1935 but declined by 6 per cent during 1936; crude rubber imports increased by 75 per cent up to 1935 but fell off by 10 per cent this year; while petroleum imports increased by 19 per cent from 1933 to 1935 and added nearly 4 per cent more this year.

In the construction industry, contracts rose by 106 per cent up to 1935 and registered a small further advance during the present year. Sugar production rose by 13 per cent from 1933 to 1935 and again recorded a slight advance this year. Newspaper output increased by 41 per cent up to 1935 and added 16 per cent more this year; exports of planks and boards rose by 50 per cent from 1933 to 1935, and increased by 27 per cent additional during the current year.

Bernstorff and Jewry

AT LEAST THERE IS ONE EMIGRANT German who is not afraid to criticize the Hitler government's attitude toward the Jews. He is Count Bernstorff, one-time German ambassador to the United States, whose memoirs have recently been published. The author was a close friend of Rathenau and a short time after the latter's assassination Bernstorff wrote:

"Anti-Semitism has always existed and always will exist, so long as there are people wanting in humanity who attach more importance to depreciating the peculiarities of others than to developing their own personalities to the highest attainable point."

"I have always detested anti-Semitism, not merely because in the course of a long life I have had many loyal and trusted Jewish friends, but because as a politician I see in anti-Semitism a weakness, and one that I have always regarded as involving the sin against the holy spirit of politics. Anyone who starts a competitive struggle in the belief of his own inferiority will inevitably be defeated."

Count Bernstorff recalls that it never occurred to anyone in England to attack the great statesman Disraeli on the ground of his race; and he contends that the German republic needs men of character and resolution who will set themselves against what he calls this anti-Semitic lunacy before it leads to disaster. He further explains his point of view this way:

"Are we to be so feeble as to allow our people to be goaded on to further violence? We ought, on the contrary, to pledge ourselves at Rathenau's grave that for the future we will carry on the war of politics with intellectual weapons and the voting-paper alone. Let us hope that in the German republic there will only be one rivalry between Christians and Jews, and that will be for the credit of rendering the greatest services to the Fatherland."

Incidentally, Count Bernstorff is not among those who despair about disarmament because he contends that what the nations seriously want they always get in the end; hence the lack of progress toward disarmament at the present juncture by no means persuades him that the outlook for the future in this regard is practically hopeless.

Training For Failure

IT SEEMS THAT PARENTS MAY BE wrong in counseling their youngsters to study hard and aim for worldly riches or fame. At least, Dr. Mandel Sherman, widely-known university mental hygiene specialist, advises that young people be trained to become failures, in the ordinary sense of the word.

"Our educational system is suffering from an overdose of success stories," he contends. "One person in ten is neurotic, one in twenty-two insane today because we train only for success. And only a few can be successful from a material standpoint."

Youth perhaps should be taught that a successful life need not include fame and riches. But history, studied with instances of handicapped youngsters who fought their way to success, indicates that it would be difficult to get the younger generation to bow its head to the inevitability of failure.

Notes

Calm before storm, says our forecaster after one glance at Victoria municipal politics.

Some time before the United States elections, Postmaster-General Farley, in charge of the Democratic organization, stated that Roosevelt would carry every state but Maine and Vermont. In the previous presidential campaign he had been wrong only in claiming Pennsylvania, which was held by the Republicans. A little more of this sort of thing and there might be a movement to substitute "Smiling Jim" for all those elaborate straw vote polls, none of which came near his uncanny accuracy.

"During the last year, island motorists paid the government $513,000 in license fees, exclusive of gasoline tax." "The government has appropriated $165,000 for the maintenance of island roads during the next year." These two Saturday news items do not furnish propaganda facts, as they might seem to do at first glance, for Mr. H. D. Twigg's campaign to make this island a separate province. For one thing, the road vote recorded is for maintenance only and does not include any new construction. Another thing is that a large proportion of the money currently collected from motorists goes to pay interest and sinking fund on the loans financing highway construction of past years.

Across the Bay

The House is cranky after a hard week—and wants to talk about a lot of little things—that don't matter a great deal—but are the daily bread of politics.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

CRANKY HOUSE

AFTER THREE WEEKS of incessant debate, the House was pretty ragged at the week-end, ready to squabble over trifles, mightily slow in getting on with the session which must end this week. Such moods of depression invariably follow a week of over-exertion such as we had just been through. It is at such times that the back-bench worm turns, and when he turns, you never know exactly how long it will take him to settle down again, how long he may keep the House in session.

You could see the ragged state of the House's nerves as soon as it got up Saturday morning, after Friday's endurance contest. There was the Premier expecting to get the estimates all stowed neatly away without unpleasantness, for hadn't he asked his good friends of the Opposition most generally to rally around and help him get to Ottawa in time? There was Mr. Hart with his neat little black leather box full of appropriations requiring the approval of the House. There was a budget which, you would think, any House would delight to pass.

And just as everything seemed to be going fine, the worms turned. Mr. MacPherson had made a business-like speech explaining his highway policies, and defending them most effectively, but it took him until well past noon even to get his own salary voted. The back benches made him sing loud and long for his supper.

DAILY BREAD

MR. MACPHERSON'S estimates for roads, trails, bridges and ferries, are the sort of thing that the average member can get his teeth into. He may accept the depression, the difficulties of the economic system, the threatened destruction of our civilization with marked fortitude; he may regard all the larger issues of the world with equanimity; but when it comes to the appropriations for a local ferry service, he springs into the arena with the roar of a lion. This is the kind of thing he understands and loves. This, not the larger things, is the real daily bread of politics. This is what the folks back home want to hear about. This is what makes or breaks the country politician.

The trouble started over a ferry service on Shuswap Lake, about which Mr. Bruhn is deeply concerned. Before he had finished demanding that the ferry run again he had made a dozen speeches, dragged in the New Westminster bridge deal, denounced local politics and patronage and caused the Premier to lecture him rather sharply on his manner.

RELEASE

THIS FIRST SIGN of spirit and temper in the session seemed to release all the pent-up feelings which the members have been holding in their breasts for three weeks. Even Mr. Speaker Perry felt it necessary, the House being in committee, to defend the rights of Parliament, whose chief servant and senior member he is.

When Mr. MacPherson, in an unguarded moment, complained that he could only spend as much money on roads as the House would give him, Mr. Speaker rose to inform the hon. minister that he couldn't get away with such a manifest misunderstanding of the whole parliamentary system. For, said Mr. Speaker, the House had no right to grant Mr. MacPherson any extra money, couldn't spend a dollar without the government asking for it. There was no answer to this lesson in the functions of Parliament and the limitations of private members who cannot propose any money bill or anything affecting the revenues of the Crown.

BUSINESS

BY THIS TIME the Shuswap ferry had been almost forgotten. Instead, Mr. MacPherson was making a nice little talk to prove that government, on the whole, was carried on in a business-like way, like private business. That, as you would expect, was too much for Mr. Anselm, the rugged individualist, who called the minister's mild remarks absurd nonsense and declared that no business in the world could last two years if it were run like the Pattullo government, with its huge deficits.

Mr. McKee, an able young business man himself, confessed that he had entered politics with a low opinion of governmental efficiency, but he had learned that it was much more businesslike than he had thought possible. All this was on a road vote and, ostensibly, in a debate on the Shuswap Lake ferry.

Most of the morning was required to complete the saga of Shuswap Lake, for Mr. Carson, who comes from that neighborhood, decided that Mr. Bruhn didn't know what he was talking about and he undertook to correct him. Mr. Bruhn undertook to correct Mr. Carson. The Premier undertook to correct Mr. Bruhn.

PERSISTENT YOUNG MAN

JUST AS IT SEEMED that the saga of Shuswap Lake was about to end and some of the estimates to get passed, Mr. Planta raised the matter of the Manson Creek Road. Mr. Planta suspected that this road would never go to his Peace River, as intended. This made Mr. Planta pretty bitter, for his northern settlers are getting tired, he says, of being promised a road for which they are still waiting. To this the Premier retorted that he had made no such promises and, in fact, he had never made any promise of any sort which he didn't try to carry out.

Mr. Planta is a persistent young man, fond of digging deep into the records. Later in the day he produced a newspaper report to prove that the Premier had indeed promised a road, but the Premier didn't think the report meant that. Mr. Planta did. The Peace River isn't likely to get a road, anyway, for a long time.

By this time the government was beginning to get restive. Quite naturally it couldn't see why the House should debate all the problems of the nation before passing a simple road vote and the Premier suggested that it stick to the point. The House, in such refractory humor, wouldn't stick to the point, and by lunch time only three minor votes had been passed—ordinarily the work of a few minutes.

In the afternoon, after a good lunch, everybody felt better. Estimates swept along at top speed. Money was voted in great gobs. Mr. Sloan put through all his appropriations in half an hour. Dr. Weir escaped without ambush or sniping. Mr. Hart had no trouble. It looked as if nothing could keep us from our homes next week-end.

Letters to The Editor

THAT RATEPAYERS' MEETING

To the Editor:—Pursuant to a letter appearing in Saturday evening's Times over the signature of Arthur Hinder, I would inform your readers that the reference made by P. A. Graham to the legislative committee on Friday last was to a meeting of the Victoria Ratepayers' Association executive, held in the committee room of the City Hall, and at which meeting we went on record as not endorsing the action of Mr. John Day in issuing a writ for the disqualification of Mayor David Leeming and Alderman P. R. Brown. R. MARGISON.

1056 Pandora Street.

COST OF PHEASANTS

To the Editor:—The item on your front page Friday, "Pheasants are expensive sport," tells only one side of the story. The Attorney-General's reply to a question in the House gives particulars of the cost of pheasants raised by farmers, and shot by hunters. On the other hand, the government receives a large sum from the sportsmen in the shape of $3 license fees—very much larger than the cost of the pheasants—so the government has a good investment in its game activities.

One bright feature disclosed is that the farmers got $12,643, which will help to recoup them for their losses on crops caused by pheasants destroying their "spuds," hunters damaging their fences and the marketing board destroying their profits. DAVID MILLER.

MR. GRAHAM VS. THE "SNIPERS"

To the Editor:—I am sorry to see that Frank Graham should take umbrage of the large numbers of long-suffering ratepayers, including your humble servant, who resent the actions of Mayor Leeming and Alderman Brown, and whom he refers to as "snipers." It would appear that in his opinion they also have a "grudge." When this remark was made, I thought he had meant it to apply to myself, but the committee assured us, stating through the chairman, Arnold Hanna, "Mr. Graham was not referring to you personally."

I was sorry to see that Alderman Brown felt it necessary to bring Mr. Graham as witness to help his case before the Legislative committee. This style of evidence is not necessary on either side and deserves little consideration. Mr. Graham does plumbing work and repairs for Alderman Brown's firm.

It may please my friend, Mr. Graham, to know that although the Mayor (then) did make a statement, that he knew I did not favor him, I tried to "return good" for evil thought by actually voting for Mr. Leeming when he came before the electors the last time.

JOHN DAY.

BEER PARLOR CRITICISM

(From The Nanaimo Herald)
As for the beer parlors they have been barely tolerated by the government, and have been operated without any regard to the convenience of the public or the patrons. Beer can be bought by the bottle or by the glass. There is no regulation regarding the size of the glass. In some parlors two glasses can be bought for 15 cents, and in others a glass costs 15 cents. In a short trip along the main beer by bottle used to vary from 25 to 35 cents.

For a time it was impossible to get cigarettes in a beer parlor, and it is still impossible to get a soft drink. It is still impossible to get English or Scottish ales or Irish stout, while a sandwich, even of cheese, is out of the question.

ISLAND OUTWEIGHED

From The Island Advocate
Voters will always impress upon their representatives a sectional rather than a provincial outlook, and when half the voters of B.C. are centered in and around one definite area they are going to demand reward in that area for their political friendliness. There is no justification, from an island point of view, for any of the heaviest provincial expenditures. The island can reap no benefit, directly or indirectly, from them, as witness the P.O.E. Railway.

To Study Costs Of Garbage Fill

Executive of Public Works to Consider Erie Street Project

Comparative costs of the present method of garbage disposal and those of the suggested scheme for establishing a fill at the foot of Erie Street, along with problems regarding foreshore rights and drainage, will be studied by the executive of the public works committee before it makes any recommendation to the council regarding the suggested establishment of the fill.

At its meeting on Saturday the public works executive instructed G. M. Irwin, city engineer, to determine those costs.

He had previously reported a 400-foot cement retaining wall believed necessary to block off this suggested area for a tip would cost $10,500, and the extension of a surface drain which would be required, would account for another $2,000 for material and $4,000 for labor.

The engineer was instructed to bring in a list showing costs of hauling and dumping at sea under the existing system and an estimate for dumping and other work that would be needed for a fill.

He was also asked to ascertain the government's position on foreshore questions affected by the suggested fill.

MAY MAKE FILL

If the costs are too high for the new proposal, as compared to the existing system, the executive may recommend to the council the purchase of filling material to build up the hollow for parks purposes.

The executive also considered the stop sign at the foot of Versinder Avenue at Oak Bay Junction, and presented to the Chamber of Commerce committee which has sought its removal, the city's reasons for maintaining it. The chamber committee is expected to report back after further investigation of the matter.

A recommendation will go from the executive to the council to establish a no-parking strip on Gordon Street and another at the lower end of Broughton near Langley.

NEW JAIL FOR WOMEN PLAN

Sloan Tells House Oakalla Crowding to Be Relieved

The government is now making plans to relieve crowding in Oakalla jail by getting another building for women prisoners quite apart from the men's jail. Attorney-General Sloan told the Legislature Saturday. He did not divulge the location of the proposed women's jail but said a building believed suitable for the purpose had been tentatively chosen.

Mr. Sloan was asked by Ernest Winch, C.C.F. Burnaby, what he was going to do about improving conditions in the jail, especially for the women prisoners who sleep in dormitories.

The Attorney-General said he had always been opposed to having the women prisoners in the same buildings as the men, even though they are segregated. In the proposed new women's jail an effort would be made to give them separate cells, if funds were available.

Other improvements in the prison system depended on funds, the Attorney-General said. Considerable study had been given the Borstal system and he would like to see the young men-prisoners segregated and put under this sort of training.

With the Minister of Education, Mr. Sloan said he was working out plans by which prisoners could devote their evening hours to profitable pursuits instead of being shut away in their cells at 5 o'clock, a practice complained of by Mr. Winch.

Half Estimates Pass in House

Legislature Votes Supply to Four Government De- partments

In its first day on estimates Saturday, the British Columbia Legislature practically completed the granting of supply to four government departments which will spend some $10,000,000 in the year 1937-1938, more than half the total budget. Debt charges of $8,970,000 had been voted previously.

First dealt with were the public works estimates, which total $2,572,364, an increase of $463,000 over the estimated expenditure for the current year. The main part of the increase is made up of a $400,000 advance in the vote for maintenance of roads.

The Attorney-General's department was voted $1,643,618, an increase of $116,000 over the current year's estimate, due mainly to higher police expenditures. Game branch estimates went through without debate for the first time in twenty-five years.

For education the House voted $3,410,279, which is $207,000 more than this year. In addition, this department must distribute $680,000 in statutory advances on rural school taxes.

The department of finance estimates called for $1,113,340, up $25,000, plus $789,000 in statutory expenditures which include the distribution of $570,000 to municipalities out of motor license revenues and $219,000 in interest on superannuation funds.

HAPPY VALE

The monthly meeting of the Happy Valley Parent-Teacher Association will be held November 17. An open discussion will be held on the advantages of having grade nine in rural schools, advisability of keeping children in their own district and co-operation between school and home in establishing health rules and P. E. George of Victoria will be chairman.

SCOUTS START TOY CAMPAIGN

Open Shop at Johnson Street For Christmas Gifts

Although there were but a few toys on hand, the Boy Scout toy repair shop, under the direction of William Bardsley, commenced its Christmas toy gathering campaign this morning in the Scouts' headquarters, 1034 Johnson Street.

Soon scores of Boy Scouts will turn out in their spare hours, after school and Saturdays, to set their nimble fingers to work mending the broken toys which are expected to flock into the workshop for renovation. The youngsters will do their utmost to make Christmas a success in the homes of families facing unfortunate circumstances.

Approximately 12,000 toys are required by the toy shop to meet the need of the children in indigent families. To date there has been but little response, probably owing to the earliness of the campaign, but nevertheless the public is asked to come forward and give its wholehearted support to the worthy cause.

Toys of all descriptions, dolls, bugles, miniature trains and cars, kiddy-cars, books (lots of them), wagons, mechanical toys of all kinds, miniature tea sets, doll houses and any other playthings that will appeal to the youngsters, will be gratefully received at the workshop.

The toy shop is co-operating with the city clothing department, in charge of E. G. Snowden, and will aid in the collection of clothing. The distribution of clothes will be in charge of Mrs. A. W. Parry and a number of volunteers. Anything in the way of suits, blankets, underwear, women's dresses, or other wearing apparel is urgently required.

In the event of those who wish to make contributions not finding it convenient to leave articles at the headquarters, the Scouts will gladly call and collect them if the donors will telephone either of the three following numbers: G 4322, G 3296 or G 6994. With the exception of Sundays, the shop will be open every afternoon and evening from 2 o'clock until 9 o'clock.

No Divorce For Hollywood Pair

Associated Press. Hollywood, Calif., Nov. 16.—Officially estranged more than six months—but still "good friends"—Ginger Rogers and Lew Ayres are introducing Hollywood to a new idea in marital separations.

Neither has made a step toward the divorce court.

"So long as Mr. Ayres is satisfied to let things stand as they are, Ginger appears to be satisfied, too," said her mother, Mrs. Lela Rogers, today.

The marriage was the second for each. When it was admitted to be a failure, they arranged a property settlement.

Fellowship Supper—A church fellowship supper will be held by the Women's Union First Baptist Church on Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the lower auditorium of the church. The soloists will be Mrs. Bert Noel and Mr. Stanley Honeychurch. The speaker will be Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Cudemore Married In London

Victorian Is Bride Today Of Hon. Carol Fellowes

Canadian Press Cable. London, Nov. 16.—Hon. Carol Fellowes, son of the first Lord Allwyn and Gatha, Lady Allwyn, was married today at Caxton Hall registry office to Mrs. Caroline Alice Cudemore, daughter of Mrs. Christopher Cator, Rockland Avenue, Victoria, British Columbia.

The bride wore a smart dress of old gold under a mink coat, a small brown hat and a short veil. She entered the registry with Agatha, Lady Allwyn, a few minutes after the bridegroom.

Guests included Lord Allwyn, brother of the groom, and Lady Allwyn, his wife; the Earl and Countess of Strathford, who afterwards gave a reception for the newly-weds at their home, St. James' Square; Lady Elizabeth Lafone, Commander and Hon. Mrs. Hastings, and Lady Margaret Boscawen.

The bridegroom, who is thirty-nine, has been estate agent for his uncle, the Earl of Strathford, since 1930. They will spend their honeymoon on the Strathford estate at Ware, Hertfordshire.

WEDDINGS

FANTHORPE—FELL

In the presence of many friends of the principals, Rev. Canon H. W. G. Stocken on Saturday evening united in marriage Millicent Frances, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fell, Blackwood Street, and Mr. Thomas Fanthorpe, youngest son of Mrs. R. Fanthorpe, Port Street, and of the late Mr. Fanthorpe.

The wedding took place in St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, and the bride who was given away by her brother, Mr. Stanley Fell, wore a frock of turquoise blue tulle, with an overdress of peach net, and a Juliet cap of silver lace, with a cluster of orange blossoms at each side; she also wore silver slippers and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and carnations.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Muriel Fanthorpe, was her only attendant. In an empire frock of pale blue moiré, trimmed with peach velvet, who also wore a matching turban and silver slippers, and carried a sheaf of peach chrysanthemums. Mr. Walter A. Noel was best man.

A largely attended reception was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Fanthorpe, Jr., Dysart Road, where beautiful chrysanthemums in shades of white and yellow were used in decoration of the rooms, the bride and groom standing beneath a floral arch to receive the greetings of their friends. Small yellow chrysanthemums adorned the supper table, which was centered with the wedding cake.

The bridegroom's mother was dressed in navy blue crepe de Chine and a black hat, and wore a corsage bouquet of carnations and roses, and receiving with her was her daughter-in-law, Mrs. R. Fanthorpe, in a gown of black crepe de Chine and a black hat, and a corsage bouquet of roses.

After a short honeymoon, for which the bride left in a brown suit with matching accessories, and a muskrat coat, Mr. and Mrs. Fanthorpe will take up their residence on Queens Avenue.

BONFANTI—LACEY

Canadian Press. Stratford, Ont., Nov. 16.—St. Joseph's Church was the scene of a wedding Saturday when Marguerite Lacey, R.N., of Victoria, B.C., was united in marriage to Robert G. Bonfanti, of Beardmore, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bonfanti, Stratford. Rev. F. S. Mulken performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a smart French model of powder blue sheer, with white aude gloves and navy accessories. Her flowers were American beauty roses. Miss Doris Bonfanti, Hamilton, the bridesmaid, was in wine red with black accessories. Miss E. Bonfanti was best man.

After a wedding trip to Toronto and other centres, Mr. and Mrs. Bonfanti will reside at Beardmore.

MEE—NEIL

The wedding was quietly solemnized on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. A. de B. Owen, when Phyllis Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. A. Neil of Sooke, became the bride of Mr. Robert W. Mee, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mee.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. E. Wilkinson, and Mr. C. Mee supported the bride. After a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mee, Worsley Street, the couple left for the mainland, and later will make their home at Sooke.

GERMAN—BRUN

On November 11, at 8:30 o'clock, in Wesley United Church, Vancouver, Rev. Dr. Bland united in marriage Miss Martha Jacqueline Brun and Mr. Gordon Thomas German.

Mr. G. B. Anderson supported the groom as best man, and Miss Evangeline Cheeseman attended the bride. Following an informal reception at the home of Mr. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. German left for a honeymoon in the south, and on their return will make their home in Victoria.

A Keating Bride

Mrs. Charles L. Butler, formerly Miss Margaret McHattie of Keating, whose marriage took place at the Suggert Memorial Church last Tuesday.

Nearly 700 at Flower Tea

Chrysanthemums Admired At Empress Hotel Tea

If the annual chrysanthemum tea at the Empress Hotel continues to increase in popularity at its present rate, the question of accommodation will soon present a problem. This was evident on Saturday afternoon, when nearly 700 guests attended this colorful affair, the ballroom and foyer being crowded to overflowing, so great was the interest.

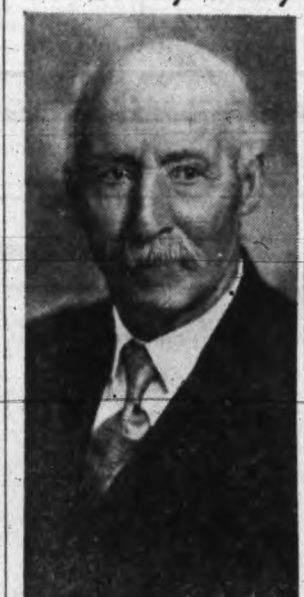

As the name implies, the magnificent chrysanthemums, grown in the hotel greenhouses by Fred Saunders, head gardener, were the focal point of interest. Ranging from white to deep bronze, they were their great shaggy heads in a central grouping in the ballroom and foyer and in smaller groups as mural decoration beneath the cluster wall lights.

The orchestra was backed with great masses of the single variety. In tones of yellow, gold and bronze, interspersed with huge shaggy white and pinky-bronze heads, against a background of palms, ferns and other foliage plants. Colored lights were played effectively on the flower groupings enhancing their beauty.

Flower-lovers found many beautiful new specimens, as well as the lovely old favorites in the wonderful collection.

Throughout the afternoon the hotel orchestra, augmented to five pieces, under the direction of William F. Tickle, played a delightful programme which included selections from the light operas and musical comedies, and other tuneful melodies.

Pioneer Has Birthday Party

MR. HENRY BRETHOUR

Mr. Henry Brethour of Sidney received the congratulations and good wishes of a host of friends and relatives on Friday, November 13, when he celebrated his eighty-third birthday. This "grand old man" of Saanich was born in Ontario in 1853 and arrived in Sidney on April 10, 1873, making his home there ever since. He has always been a great reader and keenly interested in education and for over twenty years was the secretary of the Sidney School Board.

Four generations were present at Friday's birthday party, including Mr. and Mrs. Brethour's daughter, Mrs. James White of Sidney, with her daughter, Mrs. Lorna Mackenzie of Sidney, and her daughter, "Babe" Mackenzie. Other relatives with the venerable couple for the happy occasion included a daughter and son-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Redvers-Smith of Shanghai, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Brethour and will return to China in January.

Galli-Curci Will Sing Again

To Take Role Of "Mimi"—Had Throat Operation

Associated Press

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci tested her "new voice" today in the privacy of her hotel suite.

With her comeback "debut" in opera, as Mimi in "La Boheme," scheduled by the Chicago Civic Opera Company for November 24, the world renowned soprano pronounced herself "nervous but confident."

Suntanned, fifteen pounds heavier (120 now) after a year in California since a goitre operation here in August, 1935, she said in an interview:

"My voice is not simply improved. It is a new voice. I have richness, color I never had before. I am going to sing a whole new repertoire, starting with 'La Boheme'."

Mme. Galli-Curci has been out of opera for six years and last sang in public at a concert in Japan in June, 1935.

Jobless Women Prove Hard Problem

Mrs. T. W. Sutherland Suggests Household Training

Canadian Press
Montreal, Nov. 16.—The unemployed woman is a "hard citizen to work into employment," because women are a less mobile group than men, Mrs. T. W. Sutherland of Wells, B.C., and Ottawa, member of the National Employment Commission, told a luncheon gathering here Saturday.

Mrs. Sutherland urged her listeners to communicate to the commission any ideas they might have for providing work for unemployed women. While no official figures for the unemployed women who are not on relief are available, Mrs. Sutherland said relief figures show: Heads of families (widows, deserted wives and others with dependents), 14,250; employable dependents, 30,884; single women, 8,265. These figures are exclusive of farm women. Fifty-two per cent of the unemployed women are between twenty and thirty years old, Mrs. Sutherland said.

"I would like to train girls for situations in their own homes," she declared, stressing the need of "professionalizing" housework. "I would like to see training schools in household work all across Canada."

Industries such as forestry required strong young men, she said, not the type of people who had been on relief four, five, six years or more. "I don't mean to say persons on relief are practically unemployable," she declared. "They are not. But many will have to undergo a measure of reconditioning to fit them for re-employment. We hope that through the efforts of the commission and industry they will find employment."

Indian Life as Guides' Exhibit

Canadian Entry In Sydney Pageant Startles Cora Hind

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, Nov. 16.—E. Cora Hind writes to The Free Press from Sydney, Australia: "Among the hundred and one forms of celebrating the centenary of the state of South Australia, the Girl Guides have put on a pageant or show to emphasize the universal appeal of this particular order to the girlhood of the world."

"One very large exhibit building is filled with their efforts, and very interesting and well done much of it is. There are booths representing the many nations in which the Guides are organized, and as a number of the countries of Europe which I visited last year were represented, I am able to say that much of this work was well done."

"It was a bit of a shock, I must admit, to find the whole of North America represented by an Indian village. When I got my breath back I inquired, and was informed there were thirty-five companies of troops of the Guides among the Indians of North America, so that was why this form of representation for our continent had been put on. Later I learned this exhibition had taken first prize as being the best representation of any country."

"As a vast number of Australians have the vaguest possible ideas about Canada, Girl Guides in Canada, you need not be surprised if later in life visitors from 'down under' express surprise that you do not live in wigwams."

Dominion headquarters in Toronto of the Girl Guides explained an effort was made to place activities of the Canadian Guides in true perspective before the Australian people. Samples of the Canadian Guide uniforms and handicrafts, even some furniture to make up a suitable exhibit, were shipped promptly to Australia, but owing to the distance, the outfit apparently arrived too late for the pageants referred to by Miss Hind.

St. Andrew's Has Successful Sale

Funds of the Women's Guild of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church were substantially augmented as a result of the successful sale of work and tea held in the lecture room on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. John Cochran, the president, was the general convenor and was ably assisted by workers of the various stalls.

The stalls were prettily decorated and the tempting wares found a ready sale. The superfluous stall was convened by Mrs. H. Currie, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Starr, Mrs. J. H. Young and Mrs. Paulson; fancy work, Mrs. H. Beach, assisted by Mrs. Morris, Mrs. E. H. Griffiths, Mrs. F. A. Marling and Mrs. Lister; home cooking, Mrs. G. Sanson, assisted by Mrs. A. Alexander, Mrs. C. W. Hawkins and Mrs. Cruikshank; candy, Miss H. Kennedy, assisted by Miss Gibson and Miss C. Hodge.

The hall was attractive with autumn flowers and foliage, and the tea tables centred with bronze chrysanthemums in colorful effect. Mrs. D. Scott convened the tea and was assisted by Mesdames A. Hood, P. G. Cudlip, E. M. Surphill, Hodge, R. Armstrong, M. R. Pearce and L. Johnson. Mrs. William Head and Mrs. J. Stewart were in charge of the silver collection.

Under the leadership of Mr. Jesse Longfield, assisted by Mrs. Longfield, Mrs. J. Thornborrow and Mr. W. Holmes, the St. Andrew's orchestra played selections during the tea hour, which were appreciated by the guests.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dupont announced Saturday night the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ethel Dupont, to Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., son of the President of the United States.

The wedding will take place the latter part of June.

Miss Dupont is the eldest of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Dupont, Greenville, Del. Dupont is a member of the board of the E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Company.

She is a niece of Lamont Dupont, president of the company; Pierre S. Dupont, chairman of the board, and Irene Dupont, a member of the board.

Actress Is Bride Of New York Man

Associated Press
Newport, R.I., Nov. 15.—Margaret Garland Sullivan, motion picture star and now the leading lady of "The Stage Door," current New York play, was married here today to Leland Hayward of New York. The bridegroom is in the literary field in New York.

Mrs. Sullivan formerly was the wife of Henry Fonda, screen actor, who recently wed Mrs. George T. Brokaw, socially prominent New York widow.

Hayward was twice the husband of Lola Gibbs, Park Avenue debutante. Their first marriage followed an elopement in 1924, when Hayward was a student at Princeton. After a divorce they rewed in 1930, but parted again four years later.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

USE OF BEAUTY AIDS ON CHILDREN MAY CREATE SENSE OF INFERIORITY

I have no objections, whatever to any beauty aids an adult may use to increase her attractiveness. That is an adult's privilege, but I am unalterably against making use of artificial, and often dangerous beauty aids for young children.

This is a false emphasis which would have a direct influence upon the child's sense of inferiority or the reverse, and would tend to make the child acutely self-conscious.

HEAVY HAIR GROWTH
Mrs. O. L. Mc. writes: "We have an only child, a girl of six years. She is dark haired but her skin is very fair. My problem is the unusual growth of hair she has on forearms and legs and on the back of her neck."

"They are the more noticeable because they seem to grow in actual patches like little squares of fur. She has none on her face or upper arm."

SCHOOLMATES TEASE
"About eighteen months ago her aunt, who is the owner of a beauty parlor, used a mixture of peroxide and chlorine to bleach the hair, make it brittle and finally remove it. However, the growth has returned so heavily in the past eighteen months that even her schoolmates notice it and twist her about needing a shave. Is there anything I can do about this?"

Other than using plain peroxide, which is harmless, to lighten the hair, I'd do nothing. At this age any method by which you removed the hair would simply result in its coming back with renewed unsightliness. It is more than possible that if left alone this fine growth will disappear of itself. Even small babies sometimes have hair on arms and legs and, while we cannot say that this always disappears, it is not unheard of.

Tomorrow: Mrs. Eldred discusses reasons why babies refuse solid foods.

Hotel Maid Wins Wage Suit

U.S. Supreme Court Upholds Minimum Wage

Associated Press
Omak, Wash., Nov. 16.—One could have knocked Mrs. Elsie Parrish, hotel chambermaid, over with a feather today after the clerk called and said, a Wenatchee newspaper reporter wanted the story of her life.

She was so flustered she thought there must be some mistake, although they explained it was because her suit to collect $216.19 back wages from a Wenatchee hotel was before the Supreme Court of the United States. The decision will govern the constitutionality of the law which says $14.20 is the minimum weekly wage for Washington women.

"My goodness," was all the thirty-seven-year-old grandmother could say. A small-town hotel chambermaid for years, she also has raised six children. Her husband is a sawmill worker.

"I've always followed working this way," said Mrs. Parrish.

But she was astonished that anyone would be interested in her lawsuit with the West Coast Hotel in Wenatchee, or that she married at fifteen, or that she was a grandmother without a grey hair in her brunette head, or that she'd been able and willing to help her husband keep the wolf from the door while rearing six children.

Mrs. Parrish's lawsuit started when she was discharged; demanded the back pay and refused the hotel's offer of $17 as a basis of settlement. The hotel won in the Superior Court at Wenatchee; but Justice of the Peace C. B. Conner, her attorney, carried it to the State Supreme Court which has twice upheld the minimum wage law and it ruled in her favor.

B.C. Birthday Tea Thursday

The Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter L.O.D.E. is preparing an attractive programme for the public tea to be held in the ballroom of the Empress Hotel to commemorate the seventy-eighth birthday of British Columbia on Thursday, November 19.

The proceedings will open at 3 o'clock with an address by B. A. McKelvie, and the artists contributing to the musical programme will be Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. Duncan McTavish, Mrs. Jaffray and Mrs. John Gough, accompanist, and Mr. George Green, cornetist.

The chapter will welcome Mrs. Eric Hamber as guest of honor, and it is hoped that the public will co-operate in keeping the historic date.

Any further particulars desired can be obtained by telephoning the chapter's secretary, Mrs. F. H. Parsons, Q 7491, or the regent, E 8038.

SALARIES OF CABINET UP

Cuts For Ministers in Constitution; All Servants Restored

Everybody in the government service of British Columbia has had depression wage cuts restored except the cabinet ministers and the legislators.

This became the subject of an exchange in the House Saturday between Premier Pattullo and R. H. Pooley, K.C., Unionist, Esquimalt, when the Premier declared the outgoing Tolmie government had deliberately written the cut in cabinet salaries into the constitution to prevent the new government from restoring them without opening the act.

Mr. Pooley denied it, saying the Tolmie ministers took a voluntary cut of $1,000 for three years before it happened that the constitution was opened and the cut made permanent.

"You might have been generous enough to let the new government take the cut voluntarily as well. I say it was done deliberately so we could not get a restoration without changing the act," replied the Premier.

All civil service salaries are restored to 1929 levels in the new provincial budget, starting next April 1. The Premier also told the House of government plans to readjust the basis of professional salaries within the service to remove disparity between different departments.

The larger and more valuable shrimp, that vanish every winter from the fishing grounds of the Gulf of Mexico, are now being hunted by government scientists, who hope to find the winter hide-out.

Under the most favorable auspices, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held their fifteenth annual meeting in the City Hall last evening. Lindley Creese was in the chair.

The ward system of municipal voting came in for some criticism at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, yesterday evening and the general attitude of opposition resulted in the passing of a resolution calling upon the City Council to consider the advisability of abolishing the system by referring it to the people in the form of a referendum.

Today the steamer Newington, Capt. Barnes, of the Marine and Fisheries Department, is loading stores and supplies for the lighthouses and life-saving stations on the west coast.

After listening to a cordial welcome to the provincial capital from Mayor Morley on behalf of the citizens of Victoria, which was acknowledged by Mayor Lee of New Westminster, the Union of British Columbia Municipalities yesterday afternoon settled down to the consideration of the business before it.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ogden Grahame left yesterday by the North Coast Limited and the Cunarder Ivernia for a visit to the Mediterranean. They will be away for two years—Oliver Richards left yesterday over the Northern Pacific Railway and will cross by the American liner St. Paul on a visit to England.

The wedding took place recently of Miss Louise Murray, eldest daughter of D. Murray and John McDougall of Vancouver.

Changes Mark New Chryslers

New Low-priced Car Added to Greatly Revised Range Displayed Here

Radical changes in exterior appearance, increased roominess in interior dimensions and the addition of a number of important new engineering advancements feature the Chrysler line for 1937, which is displayed at the Begg Motor Co. Limited, Yates Street.

The new lowest-priced Chrysler, which has been named the Royal, is large, handsome and high-powered. The company makes it plain that the Royal is even finer in performance, beauty, comfort, roadability, safety and economy than its predecessors.

The great demand for Chrysler in 1936 and the certainty of a much greater demand in 1937, new machinery and greater manufacturing efficiency have made it possible to bring a car embodying all of Chrysler's fine features and with a full measure of the high quality that is traditional with the Chrysler name. Interior dimensions have been so generously increased that the Royal has a roominess previously associated only with much more expensive cars.

The Chrysler line for 1937 comprises four cars, with a total of fifteen body styles. They are the Royal with ninety-three horsepower and 199 inches overall length, the Imperial with 110 horsepower and 204½ inches overall length, and the Airflow, with 130 horsepower and 213 inches overall length.

The Royal is made in seven body styles, covering the requirements of every possible prospect. They are: Business coupe, rumble seat coupe, convertible coupe, two-door touring sedan, four-door touring sedan, convertible sedan and seven-passenger sedan.

Four body styles are offered in the Imperial, the rumble seat coupe, convertible coupe, four-door touring sedan and convertible sedan. The Custom Imperial comes in seven-passenger sedan and sedan-limousine models.

The Airflow is offered in six-passenger sedan and coupe body styles. Heading the list of 1937 features in the Royal is a new Gold Seal engine, which produces ninety-three horsepower. This tremendous power, which gives the car a safety reserve at all normal driving speeds, is delivered with a smoothness, efficiency and economy never before possible in an engine of comparable size.

Normal Schools May Be Closed

Merging With University Is Trend, Weir Tells House

The new trend in teacher training will inevitably lead to the merging of the normal schools of the province with the University of British Columbia, the Hon. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, indicated in the Legislature Saturday afternoon.

Replying to a question on the subject by E. E. Winch, C.C.F., Burnaby, Dr. Weir said if the province could get a reasonable price for the Normal School building at Vancouver it would be desirable to concentrate all teacher training at the university. He said possibly Victoria College could take over the Victoria Normal building.

Rev. Robert Connell, leader of the Opposition, spoke in favor of larger grants toward salaries of rural teachers. There should be a definite attempt to lift them up, he said. Mrs. D. G. Steves, C.C.F., North Vancouver, agreed, adding she thought the B.C. Teachers' Federation is not doing all it might for the rural teacher.

CORONATION CELEBRATION

Government to Spend $15,000 in Decorating Public Buildings

A question as to where decorations and bunting—for which the House was asked to vote $15,000—will be hung during King Edward's coronation next year exercised the Legislature Saturday.

Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, said definite plans for the decorations had not yet been made. The vote provides $5,000 for decorating the Parliament Buildings here and $10,000 for public buildings elsewhere. George Murray, Liberal, Lillooet, objected to the expenditure, saying where he came from people hung their own bunting.

Ernest Bakewell, Social Constructive, Mackenzie, and Clive Planta, Independent, Peace River, put in a bid for some of it for their districts.

Premier Pattullo then announced the money would be spent all over the province. At a time of such jubilation it was only fitting that government buildings should be suitably decorated.

Mysterious spoilage in some products containing sugar is traced to heat-resistant micro-organisms retained in the sugar through the manufacturing process.

Peace River Plan Declared Success

The consolidation of fifty-nine school districts in Peace River under an official administration had been "one of the most forward steps the government has taken," Clive Planta, Independent, Peace River, declared in the Legislature Saturday.

"This change in school administration has certainly redounded to the benefit of the Minister of Education," said Mr. Planta, also paying tribute to Dr. W. Plenderleith, who handled the consolidation.

Dr. Weir informed the House that applications were coming in from all over the province for larger administrative areas for schools, similar to the Peace River scheme, and they were under study by departmental experts.

Would Give Jobs To Architects

A plea for private architects to be given a chance on government work was made in the Legislature Saturday by Dr. J. J. Gillis, Liberal, Yale, who declared that $50,000 could have been saved on the cost of the tuberculosis wing of Vancouver General Hospital.

Dr. Gillis said private architects personally supervised a building job and made sure that the contractors carried out their work in accordance with specifications.

Peace River Plan Declared Success

Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, asserted that in good times the private men would not look at government work, making more money elsewhere.

Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, said that in hospital construction and in other types of public buildings, the provincial architect was an expert.

Says Education Today Too Easy

Rev. J. Richmond Craig Tells Group More of Pioneer Spirit Needed

Children today should be taught to make their own opportunities, said Rev. J. Richmond Craig of Fairfield United Church, during an address to the Bruce, Huron and Grey Old Boys' Association at the annual meeting in the A.O.F. Hall, Saturday night.

Mr. Craig believed the educational system was too easy, under which children were taught a smattering of several subjects, but not much of any single one.

The speaker paralleled this condition with the lives which pioneers had lived. He paid tribute to the spirit of Canadian pioneers who had played such an important part in the building up of the Dominion. Their splendid heritage had given their sons and daughters fine character.

The pioneers had possessed a graciousness which could not be produced with paint and millinery, and was sadly lacking today, Mr. Craig said. They had possessed grit and perseverance and plenty of gumption, which he described as ordinary common sense. Their teachings to their children had been the cardinal virtues of honesty, sincerity and truth.

Officers of the association were elected at the meeting which preceded Mr. Craig's address. James Dinmore was returned as president. Frank Schroeder, vice-president; W. A. Hendry, secretary-treasurer; Angus Gairbairn, registrar, and A. B. McNeill, Robert Allen, J. Strang, Rev. A. L. McKelvie, Victor Morrow and G. McEwen, committee.

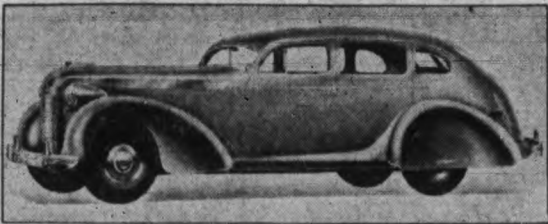

Entertainment was contributed by Pipe Major Donald Cameron, Miss Dorothy Graham, tap dancer; Muriel and Jessie Pollock, Highland dancers; Jack Townsend, vocalist; Miss L. Noble, pianist, and Miss M. Huxtable, pianist.

The meeting closed with a dance and the serving of refreshments.

COLWOOD

A farewell social for Rev. A. N. Acheson-Lyle, who is leaving shortly for England, will be held in Colwood Hall Thursday, November 19, at 8 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the women's auxiliary to St. John's Church was held Thursday afternoon in Colwood Hall. Plans were made for the sale of work to be held December 2. Mrs. W. M. Brown, president, expressed regret at the departure of Rev. A. N. Acheson-Lyle. The monthly meeting of the Colwood Women's Institute will be held Wednesday afternoon, November 18. The Colwood Burns Club will hold their next dance Friday evening November 20, in Colwood Hall, when the Colwood orchestra will supply music for Scottish dances.

UNUSUAL SIGHT IN SKY TONIGHT

Crescent Moon, Venus and Jupiter Will Be Seen Close Together This Evening

The unusual sight of the crescent moon and two bright planets close together in the sky will be offered early this evening.

Venus, Jupiter and the moon, from left to right, will appear in the south-east sky. Venus will be considerably brighter than the other planets, and can be easily identified.

During recent weeks both of the planets have been visible, but Jupiter was then far to the left. On Friday, November 13, when neither was visible, rapidly moving Venus passed her slower brother planet, and is now continuing to draw away. At 6.49 this evening, Victoria time, the moon will pass Jupiter, a very short distance to the north. At that time they will have set, in the eastern part of the continent, but in British Columbia will be visible. A few hours later, at 3 o'clock tomorrow morning, Victoria time, the moon will pass Venus, on the evening of Tuesday, the moon will have moved considerably east of the planets.

It will, however, be near another planet a week later. On Monday, November 23, at 2.58 a.m., Victoria time, it will pass Saturn, which is seen in the southern sky. Then, however, the moon will be some distance away toward the south.

PEDENS ARE SIXTH TEAM

Torchy and Doug Finish Chicago Bike Race Three Laps Behind Winners

Chicago, Nov. 16.—The young French pedalers, Emile Diet and Emile Ignat, were on top of the six-day bike racing heap today after ending the reign of the Germans, Gustav Killian and Heinz Vopel.

Diet and Ignat, staging a furious finish to take the lead a couple of hours before the end, won Chicago's thirty-sixth international grind Saturday night by a margin of two laps over the German pair which had won nine straight races.

Big Bill Peden, Victoria, B.C., and his young brother, Doug, fell behind soon after the start and wound up sixth among the eight finishing teams, three laps behind the winners.

Final standings follow:

Italo-Ethiopian War Unfinished

Mussolini's Troops Move to Subjugate 50,000 Irregulars as Rains End

Associated Press

Addis Ababa, Nov. 16.—Italian columns are on the move again in Ethiopia. Six months after troops occupied this capital city and Premier Mussolini proclaimed the annexation of Ethiopia, the war still is in progress against unconquered chieftains. With the end of the rainy season, Italian columns are pushing westward toward the Sudan border and Gore, reputed seat of what remains of an autonomous Ethiopian government, and southward through the Galla and Sidamo regions towards the Kenya frontier.

Ethiopian irregulars—the Italians call them bandits—are fighting bitterly to prevent the invaders from extending their dominion. The territory which the Italians have not yet occupied represents approximately one-fourth of all Ethiopia.

It includes Uollega to the west of Addis Ababa, an area reputed to be rich in mineral resources, and a fertile lake district in the south.

FORCES TOTAL 50,000. The unsubjugated warriors are estimated by Italian military sources to number about 50,000, many well equipped with machine guns, modern artillery, anti-aircraft and anti-tank guns.

One such group, numbering some 1,600 men under Degiac Fieremariam, clashed with an Italian column forty miles from here. The engagement lasted seven hours. The Ethiopians finally were put to flight, leaving more than 300 dead. The Italian casualties were not announced.

Regimental Orders

How Long Can a Three-quarter Wife Hold Her Husband?

YOU have to work at marriage to make a success of it. Men may be selfish, unsympathetic, but that's the way they're made and you might as well realize it. When your back aches and your nerves scream, don't take it out on your husband. He can't possibly know how you feel.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature heal and soothes pain, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three eras of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

THE SPORTS MIRROR

By PETE SALLAWAY

WHEN THE PIONEERS of English Football League introduced the system of promotion and relegation, they created an interest which they could neither foresee nor could they judge its significance. It is still regarded as the life of the game. In principle it is splendid. It fires the ambition of the clubs and gives them scope for development. In effect, it is disastrous. It has brought the game to a state when the winning of points is the first and last consideration.

It has struck fear into every team—fear that they may be beaten and drop into a position in the table and all their efforts are put forth to avoid the danger. Clubs today have two styles. At home they set out to try to win. Away their object is to draw and they marshal their forces in such a way that they may get a point. Under these conditions it is inevitable when each side is out to stop the other, the play should inevitably deteriorate. In official circles it is fully realized how the game is moving along these unfortunate lines, but no one has the courage to try to bring it back so that the play should be more important than the game.

The remedy is to suspend the promotion and relegation scheme for, say, two years. In this time clubs would change their outlook, teams would cease to practice their stopping methods, and the fans should get the real football.

James Taylor, the Preston North End leader, has made proposals of this sort to the league. Most club officials, however, laugh at the idea which they call quixotic and impossible of realization. Yet in the Peter McWilliam era, at Tottenham, England, the "Spurs" were the most popular team in the country, and they attracted record gates wherever they went. They never won the championship, but they played real football—and people flocked to see them.

The game is now living on artificially inspired excitement, and a reaction may let in. The day may come soon when spectators will tire of all the spoiling that now goes on. The league has already been brought to the state that there is not a first-class team in it, none with consistency, none who can be depended upon to win, even at home. All are victims of the point snatchers.

Sunderland have preserved their style, but they cannot command the success expected. The Arsenal have lost much of their distinction in the general deterioration that has taken place, and are unable to outwit opponents who fight them merely for a draw. There are occasional exceptions, such as Brentford. They feature an all-to-win style. Brentford, at present, are the most dangerous team in the league.

Scouler-McMillan Quotting Champs

The McIntosh Cup, symbolic of the doubles quoting championship, was captured by T. Scouler and J. McMillan Jr. Saturday afternoon at the Victoria Quotting Club grounds when they defeated J. McMillan Sr. and J. Teiper in the final, 15 to 8.

J. McMillan Sr. was crowned singles champion last Wednesday when he defeated T. Alexander, 35 to 23, to annex the Naysmith Trophy.

The club is planning to close the season with a smoker on Saturday, November 28.

Former Rally In Final Period to Defeat Rangers

Wiseman and Carr Net Goals in 2 to 1 Victory; Bruins Whip Canadiens

Two Other Games Finish in Draws

Advocates of the old-style fight-to-the-finish in hockey were given plenty of ammunition for their protest guns today as statistics showed 35 per cent of current National League contests had failed to reach decisions. Club bosses realize most cash customers like to see an issue settled even if their favorites take the bump—orders may soon be out for more chance-taking in overtime.

The best Detroit Red Wings could do Saturday and Sunday was hold Tom Gorman's Montreal Maroons to a pair of 2 to 2 ties. In Chicago, Black Hawks held off a determined Toronto Maple Leafs' bid and came out with a 1 to 1 tie, their third in four starts. But it was a better showing than Clem Loughlin's men made the previous night in Toronto, when Leafs chalked up their first win in handsome style, 6 to 2.

Meanwhile, in New York, Bill Dwyer was mighty glad he did not lose total control of Americans as he saw his star-spangled lads beat Rangers 2 to 1 in Gotham's first intra-city duel. Undeified in four starts, Amerks forged to the top of the Canadian section ladder, two points in front of their nearest rivals, Montreal Canadiens.

LAST-PERIOD RALLY

Babe Pratt put Rangers in front on a play with Neil Colville in the second period. But it was in the final session that a crowd of 15,644 saw the real fireworks as Amerks rallied to bag two goals and hold their rivals scoreless. Eddie Wiseman punched home the first marker with Lorne Carr getting the second, aided by Tommy Anderson and Art Chapman. Art Ross's bruising Bruins entered the win column on Boston ice at the expense of the surprising Habitués. Bruins' 2 to 1 decision left Maroons and Hawks the only winless clubs.

After old Howie Moreng had given Canadiens the lead, Dit Clapper tied it up on a play with Red Beattie. Then it fell to the lot of Leroy Goldie, worthy to tally the winning goal against his old mates.

Earl Robinson and Baldy Northcott were Maroons' marksmen in Saturday's tilt. Russ Blinco, Lionel Conacher, Bob Gracie and Jimmy Ward getting assists. Johnny Sorrell scored Wings' first goal from Herbie Lewis, who also passed to Syd Howe for the equalizer with less than a minute to go.

Lewis was also prominent in the second game, scoring Detroit's first goal. Larry Aurie was the other goalgetter. Robinson combined with Conacher and Blinco for Montreal's first, Ward scoring the tying goal.

SHILL LEADS SCORES

In the week-end scoring fest at Toronto, Jack Shill led Leafs' spurge with two goals, Charlie Conacher, King Clancy, Nick Metz and Buzz Bell each getting one. Metz also chalked two assists to his total, Bill Thoms and Harvey Jackson obtaining one each. Earl Siebert was Hawks' big gunner, clicking for both goals on rallies with Doc Romnes and Paul Thompson.

After Mush March had scored from Johnny Gotschell to get Hawks off on the right foot in Chicago, Bob Davidson knotted the count for Leafs before the close of the first period on a play with Red Horner.

TORONTO-CHICAGO

Tacomn Scores His Eighth Dodo

Tacoma, Nov. 16.—Making holes-in-one has become so monotonous for former Mayor Welvin G. Tennant that he merely yawned when he scored his eighth "dodo" yesterday on the Allenmore golf course. Tennant has made aces on courses from Tacoma to Eureka, Cal., and from New Jersey to Honolulu.

Saanich Games Are One-sided

James Island, Pitzer and Nex and Saanich Indians Score Soccer Wins

James Island, Pitzer and Nex, and Saanich Indians soccer eleven, came through with one-sided victories yesterday staged in the Saanich and District Football League.

James Island took the visiting Marigold squad into camp 3 to 0 on the Islanders' home grounds. At Hampton Road, Pitzer and Nex took the measure of Saanichton 3 to 2, and Saanich Indians defeated Busy Bee Cafe, 4 to 1, at Bullen Park. Saanich Native Sons defeated Victoria Meat Market.

No score was the result of play in the first portion of the tussle at James Island. In the latter half, however, the Islanders romped through for three goals and held Marigold scoreless.

It was a fast game. Fifteen minutes after the start of the second half John Maule, inside left, piled the first goal, to be followed minutes later by Walter Cowden, pivot man for James Island, who registered to Tommy Anderson's fine forward rush. Ten minutes later Cowden again scored. G. Goldie refereed.

SECOND HALF RALLY

The Pitzer and Nex-Saanichton fixture at Hampton Road offered but a fair share of action. The gammon was trailing 2 to 1 at the interval, rallied in the last half to check in with substantial lead over the Saanichton eleven, 6 to 2.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

ITALIAN AMERICA

Strange as it seems, though the three major discoveries of the New World were made by Italians, not one of them was made in the interests of Italy.

Columbus, discoverer of America in 1492, was sponsored and financed for his expedition by the Spanish government. Arrived at his first port of call in the New World, he claimed the land not for his native Italy, to whose government he had unsuccessfully appealed for financing—but for Spain.

Following the reports of the successful voyage of Columbus, King Henry VII granted to an Italian, the "well-beloved John Cabot, citizen of Venice . . . full and free authority, leave and power to seek out, discover and find whatsoever isles, countries, regions or provinces of the heathen and infidels, which before this time have been unknown to all Christians."

C.E. Rose Is New President

Elected Head of Victoria West Lawn Bowling Club; Prizes Presented

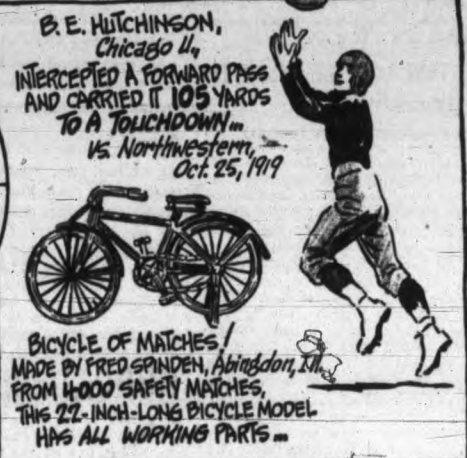

C. E. Rose was elected president of the Victoria West Lawn Bowling Club at the annual meeting held recently. N. S. Fraser was named honorary president while A. A. Warner was appointed first vice-president and L. A. Campbell, second vice-president. The office of secretary went to A. T. Harris and A. R. Hooper was chosen treasurer.

The executive committee was appointed as follows: H. Baker, C. Fea, D. Templeton, N. R. Hill and D. Campbell. The games committee will consist of A. A. Warner, H. Baker and C. Fea. C. Rose, A. A. Warner, N. R. Hill, H. Baker and A. T. Harris were named delegates to the Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Association. D. Campbell was made green warden and H. B. Witter, auditor.

Before retiring as president N. S. Fraser, in a few well-chosen words, told of the progress the club has made since its organization six years ago. He thanked the executive for their fine support during his term in office.

ITALIAN AMERICA—
ALTHOUGH THE NEW WORLD AND BOTH OF ITS CONTINENTS WERE DISCOVERED BY ITALIANS AND NAMED FOR AN ITALIAN, NO PART OF THE AMERICAS HAS EVER BEEN OWNED BY ITALY. YET 8 OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE POSSESSED AMERICAN COLONIES!

Italian exploration by an Italian, Giovanni de Verrazano, believed to have been the discoverer of New York Bay and Hudson River.

Thus, though Italians led in New World discovery, Italy failed to sponsor the expeditions. As a consequence Italy has never had a colonial possession in America. Eight other European countries have, at one time or another, had American colonies. These are Spain, once holder of vast territories in both of the American continents, Sweden, Holland, France, England, Russia, Portugal and Denmark.

Tomorrow: The Famous Blowing Rock

Though the Varsity splayers took the 50 and 100 freestyle for men and the 50 yards freestyle for women, they were outclassed in most of the other events. The Victorians took the 440 freestyle for men, the men's backstroke and both men's and women's relays easily.

Eastern Gridders Set For Playoffs

Toronto Argos, Ottawa, Sarnia, Balmy Beach, Queen's and University of Toronto Will Contest Three Championships; Cam Gray Suffers Broken Hand

Football playoff lines were drawn today in the east with the big four title resting between Toronto Argos and Ottawa Rough Riders, the O.R.F.U. between Sarnia Imperials and Toronto Balmy Beach and the intercollegiate between Queen's and University of Toronto.

It looked a little like a Toronto lay-out because Argos, Beaches and Varsity have been unbeaten this season at home. They have been whipped on their journeys into foreign territory but, on the basis of performance, each of the three may come through the final struggles.

Argos rested Saturday while the gallant young Rough Riders of Ottawa, deadlocked with Hamilton for second place in the Big Four, smeared Tigers in the mud 3 to 2. Tiny Herman's field goal in the third quarter of a furious struggle was the highlight for an Ottawa crowd of 10,000.

To finish in a first-place tie in the college circuit, Queen's turned back McGill 5 to 1 at Montreal, while Varsity was pouncing on the breaks to pile a 15 to 0 defeat on the Western Mustangs before 12,000 in Toronto. Varsity and Queen play a sudden-death game in Toronto next Saturday.

A purely routine 23 to 0 win over the hapless Hamilton Cubs was marked up by Balmy Beach, who will play a sudden-death game at London Saturday against Sarnia for the O.R.

"Y" TEAM WINS AT VANCOUVER

Local Swimmers Score 70 to 26 Victory in Meet With Varsity

Vancouver, Nov. 16.—A team of swimming Victorians were counting individual victories today following a Saturday night foray into the waters of the Crystal Pool against natators from the University of British Columbia. The Islanders scored a total of 70 points against the University's 26.

Coming over from the island under Coach Archie McKinnon, Canada's Olympic track and field coach, the Victoria swimmers shared the wins almost equally as they eclipsed nine events of the twelve-event programme.

Fast times were recorded, but no records were broken.

Though the Varsity splayers took the 50 and 100 freestyle for men and the 50 yards freestyle for women, they were outclassed in most of the other events. The Victorians took the 440 freestyle for men, the men's backstroke and both men's and women's relays easily.

Results follow:

440 yards freestyle, men—1 G. Lawrence, Victoria; 2 B. Dority, U.B.C.; 3 A. Byers, U.B.C. Time, 3:45 2-5.

50 yards freestyle, women—1 B. Butters, U.B.C.; 2 R. Walker, Victoria; 3 M. Tupman, Victoria. Time, 32:4-5.

50 yards breast stroke, men—1 B. Miller, U.B.C.; 2 I. Fuller, Victoria; 3 H. Munsey, Victoria. Time, 25:1-4.

50 yards breast stroke, women—1 A. Adams, Victoria; 2 B. Butters, U.B.C.; 3 H. Backster, Victoria. Time, 44.

200 yards freestyle relay, men—1 Victoria team No. 1; 2 U.B.C., Vancouver; 3 Victoria team No. 2. Time, 1:54 1-5.

200 yards freestyle relay, women—1 Victoria team No. 1; 2 Victoria team No. 2 (only entries). Time, 2:41.

Victoria Y.M.C.A., 70 points; University of British Columbia, 26.

Fighter Scores Two Knockouts

Edmonton fighter, had two knockouts to his credit today, both scored in the same bout.

Ferguson stopped Larry Sullivan, Vancouver, in the first thirty seconds of the main event in a boxing and wrestling card here Saturday night.

Sullivan came to in his dressing room and wanted another chance. Back into the ring went Sullivan and Ferguson, and this time Sullivan lasted until the third round, when he hit the canvas for another count.

Sullivan didn't ask for a third chance. They boxed at 180 pounds.

Retain Undeclared Record in First Division By Turning Back Victoria City 4 to 3; Penalty Decides Battle; Thistles and Esquimalt Draw

Victoria West continued their runaway race in the first division of the Victoria and District Football League on Saturday afternoon by halting the Victoria City 4 to 3 setback at Bullen Park for their sixth successive win. Gordie Bell's goal from a penalty kick provided the margin of victory. In the second match of the afternoon the Saanich Thistles and Esquimalt battled to a 2 to 2 draw at the Athletic Park.

Standings now find the Wests on top with a six-point margin over the City. The Thistles and Esquimalt are tied three points behind the second-place outfit.

Despite the fact he was playing with injured ribs and had to leave the field at one stage to have his side bandaged, Bell was outstanding in the victory of the Wests. He not only registered the winning counter but played a leading role in the other three with beautiful crosses from the right wing.

HARD-FOUGHT GAME

The City put up a game fight and it looked like the red shirts would wind up with a victory. They scored the first goal and had the Wests' front line well bottled up. The greenhairs managed to get the tying goal before half-time and in the second half came to life to take a two-goal lead.

The City rallied strongly to get back on even terms and the goal that beat them was a tough one, the penalty being awarded for accidental hands.

The Wests opened the game without Ivan Sweeney, regular right back, his place being taken by Jack Okell. The City forced a corner and goalie Restall cleared a low shot by George Payne. The City continued on the offensive and Brandow granted the post with a low drive. Youson sent in a snap shot that Restall fumbled but recovered in time to kick out.

The City were rewarded when Moore caught the corner of the net with a low shot on a cross by Brandow. The latter displayed some nice footwork in getting the ball into the goal-mouth and the City indirectly responsible for the tally.

At the other end, Scotty Stewart hooked a pretty shot around the post on a cross from Bell. Morgan broke in the clear on the left wing but drove well over the City goal after getting in close. The Wests evened matters when Scotty Robinson beat goalie Rowe with a bullet drive after Bell had lifted the ball into the goal-mouth.

Shortly after Stewart lifted over the bar from three feet out following a corner kick by Bell. The half-time whistle sounded with the teams still deadlocked.

SECOND HALF

The City earned two corners in the opening minutes of the second half, but Wests' defence was sound. The Wests went into the lead when Bell took a cross by Morgan, and lifted the ball in front of the City goal, where John Watt headed it into the net with Rowe out of position. Rowe made a nice save of Stewart's header after Morgan had centred. The Wests continued the pressure and Morgan beat it 3 to 1, picking the top corner of the net with a bullet shot on a cross by Bell. Rowe dived for the shot but never had a chance.

The City swept down the field from the kick-off and Brandow worked right through only to drive the ball directly at Restall. The City forced another corner and got their second goal, Halbert heading in Payne's perfect centre. At the other end, Loran dinal forced Rowe to push a beautiful shot over the bar.

Still fighting hard, the City got the tying goal. Moore took a pass from Brandow and shot, but Restall punched the shot out, only to have Glen Robbins rush in and push the rebound into the net.

The Wests carried the attack and the winning goal came when a shot hit Moody's hand and a penalty was awarded. Bell shot for the corner, and, although he dived, goalie Rowe just tipped the ball as it went by him.

J. C. Dowds refereed. The teams follow: Victoria West—Restall, B. Bell, J. Okell, Loran dinal, Barnes, Sage, O. Bell, Stewart, Watt, Robinson and Morgan. Victoria City—Rowe, Moody, Roper, C. Robbins, G. Robbins, Reside, Hal-kett, Youson, Brandow, Moore and G. Payne.

PLAY TO DRAW

With both teams showing good form, an interesting tussle was seen at the Athletic Park. In the first half the Thistles, despite the fact they

Powerful Navy Forwards Score Upset Win Over Bays Ruggerers

Sailors Humble League Leaders In Driving Game

Score 10 to 0 Win to Come Within Striking Distance of Top Squad

Gunners-Scots Take Fixtures

A happily smiling senior Navy rugby fifteen cast their eyes hopefully toward the Barnard Cup today, as they looked back on their surprise win over the favored James Bay Athletic Association rugger Saturday when they sailed through the blue shirts, leaving them in the wake of a 10 to 0 score at Macdonald Park.

The Bays' defeat came rather as a surprise to the rowing club themselves, as well as to the numerous oval ball fans in the city. It was their first upset this season and added a little spice to the league competition, which, up to Saturday, the Bays had dominated.

If the Navy squad turns in as good a performance against the Scottish fifteen next Saturday, a playoff match will be necessary with the James Bay men, who now hold a two-point lead in the loop standings.

In the same way they defeated the Scottish two weeks ago, the Navy turned their forward powerhouse on the Bays. They spiked the clubbers' backfield at nearly every turn. The sailors had the worst of the territorial play in the first half but they played tight rugby and held the blue shirts scoreless while they capitalized on the few changes in play there were.

NAVY SCORE
Twenty-four minutes from the opening whistle, when the Navy had pushed their way onto the Bays' twenty-five-yard line, Halkett fumbled on a pickup just on the goal mark and Banfield fell on the loose ball for the opening try. Barker's kick was true, being from directly in front of the posts.

When the Navy bottled up the Bays' backfield, they literally had the rowing club men checkmated with a superior forward pack.

SECOND HALF
The sailors played their own game in the second half, and with Robinson kicking well on the safety line, they were seldom in any danger of the blue shirts scoring. Any brilliance in the final period was decidedly conspicuous by its absence, and when the ball was not being dribbled on the turf it was being exchanged in long kicking duels on the touch-line.

The Navy's persistence was rewarded, however, when Halkett fumbled a short follow-up kick on a Bay three-quarter run and Hall dribbled onto the clubbers' goal line. McInnis, Bays' safety man, took the ball as it came but was not able to clear, and dropped it between the posts where the two packs piled up. The subsequent scrum down on the Bays' goal line resulted in the Navy pushing over and Rutherford falling on the ball, Barker converted.

Chuck Nickason To Fight Lewis

Wednesday's semi-windup bout on the Sonny Buxton-Danny Pahl card at the Tillamook gym will see Chuck Nickason, Vancouver light-heavyweight, battle Jerome Lewis, Seattle, over six rounds. Lewis has been substituted for Daniel Howard, who has suffered an injury and will not be able to fill the local engagement.

Tonight at the gym a number of boys will work out following which the contestants for the two four-round local preliminaries will be selected.

Promoter Charlie Ruskin announced today that Buxton will arrive in the city tomorrow and that Pahl was expected today. Both main events will work out at the gym tomorrow night.

led a short follow-up kick on a Bay three-quarter run and Hall dribbled onto the clubbers' goal line. McInnis, Bays' safety man, took the ball as it came but was not able to clear, and dropped it between the posts where the two packs piled up. The subsequent scrum down on the Bays' goal line resulted in the Navy pushing over and Rutherford falling on the ball, Barker converted.

Later in the half, Fleming, Bays' star backfield man, and Banfield, Navy forward, were banished on a little difference in tackling technique by Referee Swetman after an argument on the same.

Following the Navy's second try, the Bays came pretty close to scoring, but the sailors held them down till the final whistle blew.

TEAMS FOLLOW:
J.B.A.A.—McInnis, Buxton, Brown, Fleming, Painter, Halkett, Stipe, Peard, Dickson, Mair, Pettierew, Rutan, Burns, Usher and Simpson.

NAVY—Robinson, "Snakes" Hall, Williams, Paul, Chuck Sweet, Bill Smith, Fred Freeman, Fraser, Rutherford, McRae, Bennett, Dallin, Banfield, Sinclair and Barker.

With Lucas, Bray, Bridge, Smith, Noel, Cosier, Stubb, Daiseil, Pellet and Kirkbride doing the scoring, Jack Baxter's intermediate Fifth Regiment fifteen swept through their Navy opponents 60 to 0 on the lower field.

The Navy fifteen played three men short in the first half, which ended 35 to 0, but in the second half both teams played with twelve men.

Tan Carney crashed over for the only try of the game as the Scottish defeated the Victoria College fifteen 3 to 0 at the Victoria High School grounds.

The Canadian Scottish and the Garrison played to an 8 to 8 draw at Work Point Barracks in an exhibition match.

Hill's Corner In Shutout Win

Meeting in a first division match, Hill's Corner blanked the Britannia Branch Cubs, 2 to 0, Saturday in the feature Juvenile Football League game. Continuing their winning streak, Esquimalt Meat Market was winner over Oak Bay Rovers, 3 to 0, in a second division skirmish.

Oaklands Aces met their first defeat of the current season's race, at the hands of the Victoria Athletic Club, 5 to 2, in a fourth division fixture. Two other matches in this division ended in draws. Esquimalt Meat Market and Oak Bay Rovers fought to a 1 to 1 deadlock, and the St. Louis College-Blue Birds match resulted in a 1 to 1 draw.

VICTORIA WEST IN SIXTH SOCCER WIN

lacked the services of their half-back, George Leggett, had the tide of play with them and at the interval were leading 2 to 1. Esquimalt changed their line-up in the second half and held the upper hand.

From the kick-off the Saanich forwards swept down to their opponents' territory and Robbins shot wide. Keeping up the pressure, the Thistles were rewarded with a goal. Easter crossed to Red Miles on the left wing, who sagged the hemp with a hard drive. The game had been going about four minutes.

Esquimalt forced matters and goalkeepers was called on to clear a pair of good drives from Eddy De Costa. A miskick by Wes Harper, the Thistles' fullback, nearly resulted in a goal, but luckily Chalmers' legs were in the way.

The Thistles kept up a steady barrage around the Esquimalt net and at the eighteen-minute mark made it 2 to 0. Sage taking a pass from Robbins to beat De Costa.

Esquimalt carried the play and managed to get their first goal when Barnswell's pass was accepted by Hess, and the centre forward made no mistake with his shot.

For the remainder of the half the Dockers held their own with the Thistles, with both defences being called on to repulse attacks. The teams retired with the Thistles leading 2 to 1.

On the resumption of play, the Dockers staged many a determined attack on the Saanich goal. Barnswell crashed a sizer at the goal and Chalmers fumbled in clearing. For fifteen minutes Esquimalt hammered away and finally netted the tying counter. It was a freak goal. Eddy De Costa, right winger, was responsible. His low shot was from well out, slipped through half a dozen players into the corner of the net.

From then to the end of the game was a continual see-saw, with no further scoring.

Bill Cull refereed.

The teams follow:
Esquimalt—L. De Costa, Watt, Laird, Robinson, Bennett, Harkness, E. De Costa, J. Brown, Hess, McBay, E. Brown and Tregellis.

Saanich Thistles—Chalmers, Stoffer, Harper, Williams, Crowe, Speller, Miles, Glen, Robbins, Easter and Sage.

FOUL GIVES FRALEY WIN

Nebraskan Takes Mat Battle With Chiwacki; Newman Beaten

Pat Fraley, husky mat artist from Nebraska, was victor over Chief Chiwacki, rough and ready gypsy exponent, in the headline bout of a double-main-event on the wrestling show at the Tillamook gym Saturday evening, when he secured the odd-fall in third round of the six-round mix on a foul.

Chiwacki came out of his corner fast as the gong opened the bout, smashed his ham-like fist against Fraley's jaw a half dozen times, and then fell on his dazed opponent for the first fall. It took but fifteen seconds. Realizing it was useless to try and fight the gypsy cleanly, the Nebraskan went after Chiwacki tooth and nail in the next round. He bounced the Chief around considerably and then lay on him for the tying fall.

A deliberate foul on the part of Chiwacki in the third round put Fraley out of commission, but also gave him victory. Fraley in great pain, rolled out of the ring to land on the floor below. Still in very weak condition he was finally carried to the dressing-room. Fraley weighed 225 pounds, Chiwacki 250 pounds.

A one-fall draw was the result of the initial portion of the double-main attraction, which brought together Donald McIntyre, poker-faced Scot, and Rebel Russell, clever Chicago exponent. Both lads brought to bear all the holds they could muster, and their earnest mixing brought rounds of applause. Russell got the opening fall in the third stanza, with an Indian deathlock. McIntyre evened up in the fourth round with flying tackles and a body press. McIntyre weighed 215 pounds, ten more than Russell.

Sam Leathers, Dallas, Texas, grappled to an odd-fall win over Louie Newman, Victoria, in the special event. Newman got the opener with a body scissors. Leathers got the equalizer in the fourth round with a similar hold. A body slam and a press gave the Dallas man the deciding fall in the fifth session. Leathers weighed 216 pounds, sixteen more than Newman.

Mohr Singh and Pat Burns, local boys, fought to a one-fall draw in the opener. Both weighed 135 pounds.

WASHINGTON WINS EASILY

Huskies Blank Southern California 12 to 0; Northwestern Victor

New York, Nov. 16.—Northwestern's undefeated and untied Wildcats completed their football sweep through the big ten conference Saturday as Notre Dame and Minnesota chalked up impressive interconference triumphs and Yale's Bulldogs, paced by their great end, Larry Kelley, toppled Princeton in a sensational second-half drive, 26 to 0.

Northwestern had to overcome surprisingly sturdy resistance from Michigan's Wolverines, but won 9 to 0 for the Wildcats' sixth consecutive conference victory.

Meanwhile a record crowd of 80,000 packed the Yankee Stadium to watch Notre Dame take advantage of all its opportunities and humble the Army 29 to 6.

Minnesota's Gridiron Juggernaut flattened the Texas Longhorns 47 to 19 before a crowd of 45,000 at Minneapolis.

The day's programme accomplished little in the way of developing an outstanding Rose Bowl contender. Furham, the east's leading hope, was idle and the two eligible southern machines, Louisiana State and Alabama, both won.

Louisiana State stopped Auburn 10 to 6, while Alabama fought off a brilliant closing rally by Georgia Tech to win 20 to 16.

The most likely far western representative, Washington, retained its undefeated status within the Pacific coast conference by beating Southern California 12 to 0.

Georgetown, which with Fordham, was the east's only undefeated team, suffered a stunning setback at Manhattan's hands, 13 to 0.

While Northwestern was maintaining its perfect record, Marquette also remained undefeated and untied as the golden avalanche buried Mississippi 33 to 0.

Duke virtually clinched the southern conference championship with a convincing 27 to 7 victory over North Carolina.

Utah State clinched the Rocky Mountain crown by beating Colorado University 14 to 13.

CRESCENTS WIN IN CLOSE GAME

One closely contested fixture and a pair of decisive victories were the result of a trio of hoop matches staged Saturday evening at the Y.M.C.A. gym, by the Sunday School Basketball League.

Crescents' smooth-working intermediate B quintette were able to defeat the Commercial 27 to 24 after a fast engagement. Battling in the same division Canadian Scottish took the season's first 41 to 19.

Metropolitans' shellacked Christ Church Cathedral 68 to 5, in a one-sided junior encounter.

Bob Macmurelle refereed.

The teams and scores follow:

Canadian Scottish—Myra (10), Friker (9), Pairs (11), Purdy (1), Lovell (8), White (2), total 41.

OAKLAND IN HOCKEY WIN

Clippers Defeat Seattle 4 to 3; Former Windsor Players Star

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 16.—Oakland's Clippers edged out a 4 to 3 victory from Seattle Sea Hawks Saturday night by netting the final tally with little more than a minute to play. The Oakland forward line of King, Webster and Moffatt, all recently of Windsor, Ontario, put the Clippers into a tie with Seattle and Vancouver for league leadership.

Oakland jumped ahead in less than thirty seconds of the second period, after a scoreless first. King scored the opening goal on a pass from Webster. About three minutes later Seattle evened the count with a goal by McAdam and went into the lead six minutes later when Riley Muller sagged the net. Oakland skated back in front, however, on successive goals by Centre Dyck and Defenceman Houbregs. From then on and throughout the game, the Clippers had everything their way.

Seattle staged a furious attack in the closing five minutes, after Oakland had a 4 to 2 lead on a marker by Webster, and Tabor scored the third Sea Hawks' goal.

Oakland went back on a five-man defence for the next few seconds and thrust aside every Sea Hawk try.

First period—No Score.

Second period—1, Oakland, King (Webster), 20; 2, Seattle, McAdam, 3:50; 3, Seattle, Muller, 9:50; 4, Oakland, Dyck, 10:17; 5, Oakland, Houbregs (King), 16:12. Penalty: Proudlock.

FARMERS WANT STATE HEALTH

Advisory Board Asks Extension of Act to Agricultural Workers

The advisory board of the British Columbia Farmers' Institutes went on record as being strongly in favor of health insurance and all forms of state medical aid, at the first meeting of its two-day session at the Parliament Buildings this morning.

After hearing E. W. Neel, representative of the farmers' institutes in the Vancouver Island and Gulf Islands districts, and president of the British Columbia Hospitals' Association, sketch briefly the health insurance act, especially in its relationship to agriculture, the ten members of the board voted unanimously in favor of a resolution asking that the scheme be extended to include agricultural workers.

As Mr. Neel pointed out that the Health Insurance Act in its present form had eliminated all dental and optical services, a rider was added to the resolution asking that the provincial secretary continue the traveling dental clinics in outlying districts, which were said to be most beneficial.

The advisory board also passed a resolution "proposing some provision for inspection and advisory visits to parents and children in outlying districts by a qualified nurse in order that tendency to diseases or physical defects may be treated in an early stage."

Participation of Victoria in a national safety drive is requested in a communication from the Dominion Automobile Safety Council Inc., first received at the City Hall today. The suggestion is advanced that cities of Canada be graded on a population basis and compete in a safety competition aimed to curtail the number of accidents in various centres annually. Insurance companies have issued a statement that every fatal traffic accident costs a community $50,000 through direct and indirect loss, the letter said.

Troubles of Veterans Told Assistance Commission From Ottawa Sitting in Victoria

Troubles which ex-servicemen are facing today were told to the Veterans' Assistance Commission from Ottawa at an all-day session in the council room of the City Hall today.

The committee, which consists of Col. J. R. Rattray, C.M.G., Ottawa, chairman; Robert Macneil, Vancouver, British Columbia Secretary of the Canadian Legion, and Lieut.-Col. H. L. de Marigny, Montreal, is touring the Dominion gathering data on problems confronting ex-servicemen in Canada, particularly in so far as they concern those partially covered by the Department of Pensions and National Health, the prematurely aged and the unemployed.

Briefs from the district council of the Canadian Legion, which include representation of the local branches in the Canadian Legion, the Army and Navy Veterans and those from individuals, were presented to the committee, with spokesmen speaking on behalf of the various briefs.

The district council of the Canadian Legion's brief, for which W. G. Stone acted as spokesman, strongly urged the immediate adoption of the amendments of the War Veterans' Allowance Act, as recommended to the Parliament of Canada by unanimous vote of numerous conventions of the Canadian Legion, particularly the national convention held in Vancouver in March of this year.

The representations made claimed that the Veterans' Allowance Act is not only an employment law but a law of age, except where applicants for positions may have had technical training. A large number of industries, on account of their pension schemes, do not engage new men over the age of forty. This generally applies to temporary as well as permanent help.

Ex-servicemen, by reason of age, are now debarred from becoming members of municipal police, fire departments and school boards, where pension schemes are in vogue.

Extension of the Department of Pensions and National Health of the Veterans' Craft Workshop in order to accept receipts of a small pension, capable of performing a few hours work daily, should be given an opportunity to do so was recommended.

Members of the advisory board who attended the session were: E. W. Neel, Vancouver Island; A. B. Smith, Cranbrook; O. B. Appleton, West Kootenay; H. Bose, Lower Fraser Valley; R. C. Bias, Cariboo; W. Harrison, Kamloops; R. Blackburn, Prince George; T. Jamieson, Pouce Coupe.

"Resolved that this association go on record as being in favor of the principles of the Natural Products Marketing Act, and request the aid of the Canadian Chamber of Agriculture in an endeavor to secure some protection for our industry from imported tomatoes."

Y.W.C.A. Finance Campaign Opens

Objective of $5,000 to Support Valuable Services Sends Sixty Canvassers Into Field; Other Contributions Invited

With an objective of $5,000 to cover a portion of the operating costs of its extensive community and individual service, the Victoria Young Women's Christian Association today launched a seven-day financial campaign.

Sixty women, all of them in some way connected with the association and fully understanding its work, have offered their services voluntarily as canvassers.

These canvassers will interview selected prospects—as far as possible people of their own acquaintance. However, the organizers of the drive wish to stress the fact that it is impossible to cover the whole of Victoria in this manner. They believe there are a large number of people whose names do not appear on the prospect lists, but who have an active appreciation of the work which the "Y" is doing to the benefit of the community as a whole. Such contributions will be received at the "Y" building throughout the campaign.

The campaign workers are organized in two divisions, headed by Dr. Olga Jardine and Mrs. Richard Felton, with four teams of five in each division. In addition there is a special canvasser group.

A luncheon at the Y.W.C.A. building today was scheduled to give the campaign its official start.

The campaign will close officially next Monday afternoon, and final reports from workers will be received at a tea meeting on that day. There will be interim reports received at tea meetings on Wednesday and Friday.

Obituary

PEDRO WILFRED GARNOT
Funeral services for Pedro Wilfred Garnot, who passed away Friday at the family residence, Baker Street, Saanich, aged sixty-six years, will take place tomorrow morning from McCall Brothers' Funeral Home and proceed to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where services will be held at 10:30 o'clock. Interment will be at Ross Bay Cemetery.

EDWARD FRANKLIN ARNOLD
Many friends attended the funeral of Edward Franklin Arnold, which took place on Saturday afternoon. Rev. F. W. McKinnon conducted the service, during which the hymns "The Sands of Time" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" were sung. "The Better Land" was also sung as a solo by Mrs. J. Murrant. Interment was in Colwood Burial Park, with the following as pallbearers: J. J. Searl, W. A. Demsey, J. Demsey, T. E. Reason, P. H. Humphrey and S. Gregory.

SARAH E. ADAMS
In the presence of a large congregation, funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Sarah E. Adams, Rev. Daniel Walker officiating. The hymns sung were "Abide With Me" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The casket and hearse were banked with beautiful floral tributes. The following were the pallbearers: C. F. Earle, George H. Hall, A. Gerow, C. Adams, L. Byng and E. Fox. The remains were laid at rest in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

MARY COMER
Yesterday at the First United Church, Mill Bay, funeral services were held for Mrs. Mary Comer, of 530 Hillside Avenue, who passed away in St. Joseph's Hospital on Friday last. The church was crowded with many sorrowing friends and the large number of beautiful floral offerings betokened the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. T. Menzies conducted the service, during which the congregation sang the hymn, "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The pallbearers were: R. Moulton C. Morris, H. Stuart, A. Barry, G. Taggart and J. Freeman. The remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery.

AUGUST HAUT
At the Royal Jubilee Hospital on Wednesday, November 11, the death occurred of August Haut, aged seventy-two years, of Sooke. Mr. Haut was born in Germany and had been a resident of this province for the last twenty-four years. He is mourned by one brother, of Chisobyan, Mich. (now in the city) one sister in San Francisco, Cal., and a sister in Jackson, Michigan. The remains are resting at McCall Brothers' Funeral Home and the funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from Sooke Presbyterian Church. Rev. Samuel Lundie will conduct the service, after which interment will be in the churchyard.

PAUL KRUBINSKI
At the family residence, 1703 Lee Avenue, the death occurred on Saturday evening of Paul Krubinski, aged seventy-five years. Mr. Krubinski was born in Austria and had lived in Saskatchewan for many years before coming to Victoria. He is mourned by his widow; two daughters, Miss Clara Krubinski, at home, and Mrs. A. Engel of Hardy, Sask., and one son, Frank, of Khedive, Sask.; also eleven grandchildren. The remains are resting at McCall Bros' Funeral Home, where prayers will be said on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning, proceeding to Our Lady of Lourdes Church, where mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Geurkens will be the celebrant, after which interment will be in Ross Bay Cemetery.

ROBERT BEARD
Robert Beard, aged eighty years, of 3018 Carroll Street, passed away this morning. The late Mr. Beard was born in Ontario and had been a resident of this city for twenty-

AD SOCIETY SEEKS CHANGE

Ask City For Different Financial Contribution on Per Diem Basis

In a letter received at the City Hall today the Children's Aid Society again seeks a change in the city's method of contributing to costs of wards of the society along lines of a per diem payment instead of the specified monthly grant of $450.

The society suggests the city pay on a basis of 70 cents a day for each charge on a basis of 1935 monthly ward totals.

The costs per day fluctuate, the society's letter points out.

"The actual cost of city wards for ten months of this year has been $5,111.87, yet the city has paid only $4,050 for the nine months," the letter states.

During the same period, it continues, the society has had to take in seven children at wards of the city while only two were discharged. It is evident, the letter says, that the society will have to take eight more city wards before the end of 1936, while only one will be discharged.

Tarzan And The Leopard Men

As dusk enveloped the dismal village of the Leopard Men, Bobo conducted Old Timer to the secret passage that led underground to the banks of the great river. Overhead, in the trees, the white giant and the little monkey moved with them - silently, cautiously.

"I am afraid, let us go back," Nkima pleaded. "Turn around when you wish," Tarzan answered sternly. But the monkey made no move to retreat. He was afraid to go on, yet he was even more afraid to go back. Here, at least, Tarzan's presence gave him comfort.

Now Bobo removed the brush camouflage that concealed the entrance to the secret passage. Old Timer entered, believing that he was on the path to safety. A few minutes later, Tarzan dropped down, and he too entered the dark tunnel, followed by quaking Nkima.

After a while Bobo and Old Timer emerged on the bank of the river. There, on the narrow strand, stood a host of taloned warriors of the Leopard Clan. Quickly they circled the helpless white man. "To the Temple of the Leopard Clan!" Bobo commanded.

Children Reflect Improper Rearing

Asks: Are We Becoming a Nation of Hoodlums?

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH PARENTS that they no longer seem to think it necessary to teach their children to be ladies and gentlemen, and behave like ladies and gentlemen?

In former times there was a code to which gentlemen subscribed and certain things which simply were not done by those who moved in polite society. People's morals may not have been above reproach, but their manners were impeccable. A man might have stolen your daughter, but he would have been incapable of purloining your silver. A woman might have ruined your reputation with her gossip, but she would never have smeared lipstick all over your best guest towels.

In those halcyon days no tradition was more binding than respect for hospitality. It was held to be an honor to be invited to be a guest in a home, and primarily that the least one could do in decency was to accept an invitation or refuse it definitely at the time, so as to leave a hostess in no doubt as to whether to expect one or not. Once accepted, it was held obligatory to go promptly at the time specified in the invitation. Such stress was laid on this elementary principle of consideration for the one who was giving the party, that it was said that nothing but death excused one for breaking a dinner engagement, and even then one should send his executor in his stead.

And being at a party it was taken as a matter of course that a guest would do his part to make the evening a success; that he would dance with the wallflowers, talk to the dumb, eat what was set before him and otherwise conduct himself as a civilized human being.

Nobody ever dreamed of a state of society outside of the alums where the guests would walk out on a party if the punch was not strong enough nor the cocktails plenty enough, nor if the music wasn't sufficiently jassy. Nor could anybody have imagined any young people of respectable parentage wrecking a beautiful dinner by throwing food at each other across the table and demonstrating how strong they were by bending the forks and spoons into fantastic shapes.

Yet such, alas, are the manners of the youth of today. When a hostess gives a party half her guests will not even bother to accept or decline the invitation. Even after accepting they may not come, or they may come with half a dozen of their pals who were not invited. Even the guest of honor at a party is likely to stroll in an hour late after the party has gone as flat as the soufflé. If somebody else is giving a party that is more exciting and where there is more to drink, the youngsters think nothing of quitting their hostess cold and rushing off in a body to where there is more gaiety.

Experience has taught hostesses that it is cheaper to entertain in public places than at home because the modern youngsters practically wreck any house they go into. They spill liquor on fine rugs and burn holes in costly tablecloths. They scorch furniture with lighted cigarettes, and take away bric-a-bac as souvenirs. And, as a final gesture of humor, they frequently hide sandwiches and perishable food behind pictures where they are not discovered until the wall and the picture are ruined.

If these youngsters, who have not even the manners of hoodlums, belonged to the lowest class of society, their conduct might be explained by the fact that they knew no better, but the strange thing is that they are the children of our so-called "best people." They have had the advantage of association and education and their fathers and mothers would be incapable of the atrocities they commit.

Yet the parents must be to blame because, after all, our conduct reflects our upbringing. We do instinctively the things we were taught to do in our cradles, and if we have the manners of ladies and gentlemen inculcated in us in our early youth they are just an integral part of us. We can no more shed them than we can our skins.

Boys and girls who have been taught from their youth to repay courtesy with courtesy are not going to treat their hostess with rudeness. Boys and girls who have been taught to respect other people's property are not going to be careless of their cigarettes and lipsticks. Hoodlum children are always a reflection on their mother.

Ancle Wiggily And Jingle's Ring

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Just as Uncle Wiggily was hopping along the school path one day he heard a voice crying:

"It's gone! It's gone! It's lost!"

"What is lost?" asked the rabbit gentleman almost before he had thought. Because almost as soon as Uncle Wiggily saw what was lost he thought, perhaps, the voice might be that of one of the Bad Chaps.

"And he might," thought Uncle Wiggily, "of shivery, like, and suggestive, whoever it is, might answer that I had lost my chance of getting away, which I hope I haven't."

I am glad to tell you Uncle Wiggily hadn't lost his chance. It was a Bad Chap shouting. It was Jingle, one of Uncle Wiggily's twin rabbit girls. The rabbit gentleman knew this as soon as the voice called once more:

"It's lost! It's gone! It's lost!"

"What do you mean, Jingle? Is the Hollow Tree School lost and the Lady Mouse Teacher? For you must remember, if you please, that Uncle Wiggily was on the path that led to the school when he heard Jingle calling so sadly."

"The Hollow Tree School can't be lost," went on Mr. Longears. "Hop along a bit. I'll hop, Jingle, and I'm sure you'll see it."

SCHOOL ISN'T LOST

"Oh, Daddy, I wasn't crying about the school. I know that isn't lost," said Jingle. And when Uncle Wiggily saw his little girl bunny he could tell she had been sadly crying.

"What is lost, then, Jingle?" asked her father kindly.

"Oh, it's my ring! My lovely old ring with a little diamond in that Santa Claus brought me for Christmas," sobbed Jingle. "I was hopping along on my way from school when, all of a sudden, my lovely ring slipped off my paw and it dropped on the ground. I mean my ring dropped on the ground, not my paw. I mean my ring!"

"Understand," said Uncle Wiggily, who really was a very clever rabbit gentleman. "But it is right to speak properly. Jingle, I know the Lady Mouse Teacher would want you to. Now show me where you dropped your ring."

"Right here," said the rabbit child pointing to a place on the ground where there were many dried leaves. "I dropped it here. But there's no use looking for it, Daddy. I did, but I can't find it."

"Four eyes are better than two," said Mr. Longears. "I'll take a look. Perhaps I may have better luck. Did you take your ring off to show someone? Is that the way you dropped it?"

"Oh, no, Daddy," said Jingle. "But you see my paw was cold and whenever it gets cold it seems to get tighter and then my ring doesn't fit tightly. That's how it slipped off."

FINDS SOMETHING

"Um," said Mr. Longears noncommittally like and busy, for he was poking in the leaves with a stick looking for Jingle's ring. All of a sudden he said: "Ah!"

"Have you found it?" asked Jingle, eagerly hopping to her father's side. "Have you found my lovely ring?"

"No," said Uncle Wiggily. "But I think I have found the place where you lost it. Look!" He pointed and Jingle looked. She saw in the ground a little round hole that had been covered by the leaves her daddy had pushed aside. "I think your ring is down that hole and I am going after it," said Mr. Longears bravely. "You can't get down that hole!" cried Jingle.

"We shall see," said Mr. Longears firmly. And what happened after that you shall learn tomorrow, when the story will be about Uncle Wiggily down the hole. But please, don't let the telephone talk in its sleep.
